I want to thank everyone who has helped me put together My ^{3rd} Great Grandparents, William Lowe and Jane Gore's family. Descendants from Jefferson, George, Hawley & Arabella Jane's, Andrew Jackson, had been a big help in this project. Don't have any farther on William Lowe but do have the Gore line many more generations back to almost the beginning of when they came to US.

Fortunately we have info on most all the children of William and Jane but can't find their deaths anywhere. Family story went they sold their land in Madison Co. Il in 1838 after buying it 1830 and William wanted to go to Texas and took his wife and believe the 2 small children, but she didn't like it there and came back and then we found the small children with their older siblings in Iowa. But have never found any thing of the deaths of the parents. Nothing much on James Madison and John Lowe, 1st and last children of William & Jane.

This has been an on going project since 1969 to 2016 and even at that there is much more that can be done but since I have hit my 80 year mark I am going to let the younger ones to finish out the generations if anyone would like to work on this family.

At least this will be a start for anyone that descends from this line if they so desire.

I have included a pedigree chart showing the line both back from me to William and Jane.

DEATH: Family info, obit and cemetery records. However he was first buried in Pleasant Hill cem near Aliceville, Coffey Co. KS where he died. His wife brought him to be buried at Wilson Grove cemetery before her death, near Sumner, Bremer Co. IA (have copy)

One obituary from a newspaper from Coffey Co. KS. "In Avon twp, Coffey Co, Kansas, May 5, 1892 from la grippe, A.J. Lowe, aged 69 years, 7 months and 7 days.

Mr Lowe was a resident of this county a number of years, moving here from Iowa, and was a man highly esteemed and respected by his fellow citizens. He as a man of strict integrity and noble character and an uncompromising democrat of the old school. During his life he filled many positions of honor and trust, and at the time of his death he was Coffey county's member of our congressional committee. His last sickness was almost entirely without pain except a short time near the end. The funeral services took place last Saturday and a large concourse of sorrowing friends and neighbors assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to an honored and upright citizen. (Ralph Lowe had located this copy).

The obituary from the Sumner Gazette, Sumner Iowa 12 May 1892: Died - A.J. Lowe died at his home near Aliceville, Kansas, on Thursday evening May 5th, 1892. His illness dates back over one year, beginning with la grippe. He had been a resident of the place where he died for the last ten years, moving here from this township, where he had spent the twelve preceeding years of his life. He was past 70 years old, was born in Virginia, read law in his younger days, and practiced the same to a limited extent, his time being mostly engaged in farming. He held the office of Justice of the Peace during all of his residence in Kansas. His wife and eleven children survive him, four of whom are residents of this city, J.B. Lowe, Mrs S.N. Orvis, Mrs C.C. Parsons and Mrs Frank Wescott.

BURIAL: He was buried in the Wilson Grove cemetery in Sumner twp, Bremer Co. IA, where many of his family are buried. Had taken picture in Delaware Co. IA of his first wife, Mary's stone in Apr 1974. Took pictures of Andrew and Ann, his 2nd wives grave stones during a visit to Sumner, Wilson Grove cemetery, 11 Oct 1997.

CIVIL WAR: Although right age to be in Civil War no mention or record can be found that he was in. One strange fact was one Andrew Jackson Lowe was in Civil war with George Washington Lowe in Ill unit but was said that Lowe was not this Andrew Lowe. There were Lowes in several counties with some of the same names as ours but have not found any connection to them as yet.

He is the only brother not to have been in Civil War and all descendants agree that he wasn't.

Andrew studied law and was Justice of Peace in Delaware Co. IA and also KS. He married several people, one being his brother George.

Andrew came to Delaware Co. IA in 1848 (believed he was with his brothers in 1840 in Delaware Co.) but apparently not so either in WI or IL. He and his two brothers went to WI near the IL border not far from Galena, IL to work in the lead mines when first leaving home. Andrew farmed in Delaware Co. IA for few years then about 1866 he moved to Dubuque Co. where he farmed and ran a tavern-hotel on the old Military Road between Dubuque and Cedar Rapids at a settlement called Whitewater. Only a trace of the town remains about 4 miles east of Cascade, IA where the hiway to Dubuque crosses the Whitewater River.

According to obituary of a daughter, Helene Wescott, it was stated they lived in St. Joseph, MO before 1872 when they moved to Bremer Co. IA and farmed near Sumner, IA. He owned land in Bremer Co. according to 1875 Platt book. Was in Dubuque Co. IA in 1870 census Maybe they were actually in MO before the 1870 census since buying land in 1870 and 1872 in Bremer Co. IA. According to places of birth for the children was Dubuque Co. IA and Bremer Co. IA. So another thought was maybe Andrew just traveled to St Joseph to look over the lay of the land before actually moving there and Helen just was unsure of the situation. However I know every place I have lived so why wouldn't she have-GLT. Just can't get a time period for them there for sure.

Blackhawk Co. IA History pg 509: A.J. Lowe, J.P. of Delaware Co. IA was appointed commissioners to locate and establish a seat of Justice for BlackHawk co. 22 Jan 1853. First at Cedar Falls then changed to Waterloo, Jul 1855.
Ralph Lowe had a letter that was written by Andrew Jacksons youngest daughter Pearle Lowe Jenner in Feb 1944 to him and stated a lot of same info that Ralph, June Beals, Faye Francis and I have researched. Copy of the letter under Ralph Lowe's notes.

Wilson Grove cemetery is in section 12 of Sumner twp.

Abt 1882 he moved with his family to Coffey Co. Kansas to Avon Twp. where he lived until his death in 1892. He was first buried in Avon Twp. Coffey Co. KS. in the Pleasant Hill cem, near Aliceville, KS. Then his wife moved back to Bremer Co. IA and he had him reinterred to the Wilson Grove cem., before she died.

Ralph Lowe made a visit to Aliceville, KS but could find no trace of where he had been buried. He has a stone in the Wilson Grove cem. and we found that.
This cemetery is located 2 miles north and 1/2 mile east of Sumner, IA.

All the children came back to Iowa except the oldest son, Hawley Brooks Lowe. He stayed in KS.

Andrew was a radical democrat and southern sympathizer, but was sincere. According to his youngest daughter Pearle. He held several political offices during his lifetime, one being Justice of Peace.

Obituary of one daughter said they lived in St Joseph, MO before moving to Bremer Co. Iowa about 1872. Was in Iowa in 1870 census.

CENSUS RECORDS:

1830 census family was probably still in Madison Co. AL, One Wm Lowe there but ages didn't match what info we had so not sure. He would have been abt 7. It was stated in Andrew J. Lowes family that Andrew was about 3 when left Madison Co. AL which would have been by 1826-27 but no mention of where they went as not in Madison Co. IL till about 1832 census or land records.

1840 He would be about 17 and not located him for sure. But believe he may have been living with his older brothers, listed under Jefferson Lowe at Delaware Co. IA. Maybe still in WI not IA with other brothers, Jefferson, Hawley, George. As in 1856 was stated he had been in IA 7 years, which would have been 1849. Maybe was there then and went back to WI or IL until 1849.

Faye Francis located an article Nov 2009 from the Waterloo Dailey Courier, Waterloo, IA Tues June 14, could be 1934 pg 13. (year is not real clear). Shows pic of scene on Commerical Street in 1865, not sure if in Waterloo or not.

help get the county court house up and running it appears.

Nov 2009 received an e-mail from Judy Fatheree and said she had found my e-mail address and was hoping was still at same address and would like me to contact her as she was related on Andrew Jackson's daughter Frances Pearle Lowe Jenner and could we exchange info. Sure glad we connected as Judy's aunt died in March and she had many family pictures that Judy shared with Faye and I, now have a picture of all Andrew's children at one age or other and some grandchildren as well so what a find. Really great. Now have 3 pictures of Ann Lloyd Lowe at different ages and also one of Ann's mother Ann Jones Lloyd (Loyd) taken when she was elderly so absolutely great. Only one dau of Andrew's 2nd mg that don't have pic of and that is Mary Maria Lowe Liebforth but not giving up just yet, there maybe more. No pic from 1st wives children however.

Apr 2010 received the pictures from Judy Fatheree, who lives in Virginia Beach, VA. Her mother lives in Richland Co. IL as did her Aunt that just died. Her mothers youngest sister. They were children of Pearl Lowe Jenner. She thinks she met Ralph Lowe when he was there as a little girl.

Most of the pictures she sent were named but were 3 that were not, but one we think was probably Hawley Brooks Lowe who lived in Topeka, KS as that is where pic was taken and he and his wife had 2 children and ages look like they fit with picture. Other picture of 4 young ladies that could be Andrew's daughters but just not sure about that. Pic was taken in Sumner but not sure of the date. Older gentleman that had a real long beard, didn't look like anyone we had pic of before so maybe that man was a Lloyd, no name so can't tell for sure.

WIFE - Mary Loyd

First Info from Ralph Lowe who received the info from Mrs Pearle Lowe Jenner of Parkersburg, IL (1944)

Judy Fatheree Apr 2010 had located some pictures of children of Andrew Jackson Lowe and his wife Ann and her mother Ann Jones Lowe. Also a 5 generation picture that belive to be Ann Loyd Lowe and step dau Alabama Lowe and daughter, grand and gr granddau. This pic taken in Kansas city, MO and would have been before Ann died 1922 and Alabama died 1924. Youngest child looked like a girl about a year old or so. Can't tell that long ago with pictures. We have part of the bottom of the article missing so not sure who the last 3 gals are. Not sure absolutely who the 5 gen is either. Since Mary and Ann were sisters, Ann Jones Loyd would be Mary's mother as well.

BIRTH: Baptism date 14 Jun 1829 Wales, cemetery stone listed age of 30 years which would be born 1829 and census record of 1850 listed her age as 27 which would be b. 1823.

Faye Francis found the baptism record of the children of Evan and Ann in Wales and listed Mary's date 14 Jun 1829 Dihewyd, Cardigan, Wales. Elizabeth, Sarah, and John also listed there.

MARRIAGE: Have copy of their marriage record from White Oak Springs, WI #01422 Iowa Co, Wisconsin Territory, WI.

CHILDREN: She and Andrew had 5 children .

DEATH: Have not located an obituary for her as maybe too early for newspapers.

BURIAL: Cemetery stone in Hopkinton cem. of Mary Lowe says wife of A.J. Lowe age 30 yrs 23 Jul 1859. Have a picture of her stone taken Apr 1974 when I was at the Hopkinton cemetery.

Find A Grave has info on Mary Lowe with picture of gravestone, Wife of A.J. Lowe

Had info on A.J. in another cem with 2nd wife in Sumner, IA. picture of A.J. And Ann and gravestone.

She was sister to Andrew's 2nd wife.

Have an obit from probably Spencer IA paper from Ralph Lowe on John Loyd who was probably a brother to Mary and Ann. He came from Wales with parents as a child to Jo Davies Co. IL. then Delaware Co. IA.

1850 Delaware Co. IA pg 338 Dist 7 listed Mary as age 13 with mother and siblings.

Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974.

Some research done myself and Faye Francis and June Beals also has done some.

Mary Loyd was listed in ship "Columbia" maifest Jul 1842 with Evan and Ann Loyd at age 13 ,. Ship went from Liverpool, England to Philadelphia, PA 23 Jul 1842 Believe this was date left but not sure.

DEATH: Buried at Wilson Grove cem, which is 2 miles North and 1/2 mile East of Sumner, IA. Have picture of grave stone taken Oct 1997. CENSUS RECORDS: 1860 Delaware Co. CHILD 3 - Alabama "Allie" Lowe Some info from Ralph Lowe, 1974. She went by Allie. Update info on census from June Beals Aug 1997 of 1910 & 1920. I checked 1880,1885,1895 census and city directories for Kansas City. BIRTH: Info from Ralph and family info. and census, cemetery stone. Death certificate listed birth date of 25 Mar 1874 (crossed out & put 1854) Dubuque IA. Father listed as A.J. Jackson (crossed out & put Lowe) b. AL and mother Mary Loyd. Wife Cela C. Parsons who was also the informant (again should be husband, living at 2330 Brighton, Northmoor, MO. Cause of death, chronic something with chronic myocarditis. Can't make out for sure. There are many mistakes in record. MARRIAGE: Census record listed md 35 yrs in 1910. DEATH: June Beals received her death certificate and listed the death date as 16 Jul 1924 and was buried at Mt Moriah cem. She also said there were couple bad mistakes on it so she was trying to get it corrected by sending proof of corrections. Will send me copy later. (Nov 1998). She sent me the correct copy and all they did was cross out wrong info and added right. She had someone look for an obituary but none was located but there was a small funeral announcement located in the Kansas City Journal, Kansas City, MO 19 Jul 1924: "Parsons-- Mrs Allie, died Wednesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs Agnes Hendricks, 2330 Brighton, at the age of 70 years. She is survived by her husband, Cela C. Parsons, 2223 Poplar; 4 sons, Clyde H., 2242 Chelsea; Vaughn, Madison, Wis.; Reat H. 2537 Elmwood and Herbert L. Northmoor, MO and one daughter, Mrs Albert F. Shurky, 2323 Poplar. Funeral services Friday at 2 p.m. from Eyler Brothers Funeral Home. Burial in Mt. Moriah cemetery." DEATH: Ralphs info said she died abt 1923 in Kansas City, MO. and buried there, checked some cemetery books at Columbia, MO library Oct 1998 and didn't locate burial info for any of the Parsons but they didn't have info on the Mt Moriah cemetery. June went to the cemetery in spring of 1999 and located the grave stones and took pictures of them. Cemetery located on Holmes Street. Allie and Cela on stones next to each other with only years on them. Her children were listed in the estate of McClelland Reed 1950 who was husband of Allie's brother's daughter Edna E. Lowe Reed according to info sent by Mrs L.T. Jenner. Clyde H.; Reat H; Herbert L; Vaughn V. Parsons and Pearl E. Shurkey. There were 3 grandchildren listed by the last name of Parsons: Phyllis Ann, Clyde Matthew and Herbert Wing all living at 3418 No. Sheffield, Chicago, IL in 1950 but not child was listed as living in Chicago so who do they belong to? (Allie was Aunt to Edna E. Reed) Apr 2010 Judy Fatheree came across a picture of 5 generations and believe, according to newspaper picture and part of the account (end part was missing so not sure who was who) after listing Mrs A.J. Lowe, Sumner, IA, Great great grandmother, Mrs C.C. Parsons (would be Alabama Lowe) great grandmother, dau of Mrs Lowe (and that is end of article). Have trouble fitting 5 generations because Ann was not mother of Alabama, her sister Mary was. Need rest of article to know the rest of this line as doesn't seem to fit with the family we have to date. the younges looks like a girl about 1 year old then her mother, then her mother, then her mother and then her mother but doesn't come out to be Ann Loyd Lowe then. and 2nd oldest person looks like Ann Loyd Lowe and should be oldest person be her. Just little confusing till we can find rest of this article. (Judy is granddau of Pearl Lowe Jenner and located the picture in her Aunts things at her death). Picture had to be taken before 1922 when Ann Loyd Lowe died. Alabama had 2 daughters, Agnes and Pearle and dates not sure fit 5 generation. Alabama's address was 2223 Poplar Street when ever it was taken in Kansas City, MO. No date on article either. CHILD 4 - James Buchanan Lowe

Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974.

BIRTH: Ralph listed birth date and place.

MARRIAGE: Ralph said married Sumner, IA.

Birth Announcement of daughter, believed to be Ruby Evelyn Lowe, from the Sumner Gazette, Sumner, Iowa, Thurs November 6th, 1890.

"Born to Mr And Mrs J.B. Lowe Friday night, Oct 31, 1890", a girl.

Even thought the cemetery stone for this girl has 1894-1898 which is believed to be wrong dates and correct date is 1890-1894 as have obituary from Sumner Gazette dated Thurs, November 8th, 1894 that list her death at age 4 years. Also she is listed in the 1895 census as being 4 years old, which was taken several months after her death, which is something we don't have an answer for. It is believed someone put the stone for her at a later date and that is why it has the wrong dates on it.

DEATH: James and wife and dau moved to CA in 1924 where he died in 1927 and was buried in Union Mound cem, in Sumner, IA. Ralph read cem. stones.

OBITUARY: Info from Sumner Gazette, Sumner, Bremer County, Iowa 22 Dec 1927 pg 1. "Dies at California - J.B. Lowe To Be Buried Here Today --- Former Sumner resident passes away at California home after long illness, will be buried here. Services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mr and Mrs Frank Wescott. James B. Mr Lowe as a brother of Mrs Wescott. Interment will be made in the Union Mound Cemetery. --- Mr Lowe moved to California a few years ago to make his home. Some months ago it was discovered that he was afflicted with an incurable malady and his decline has been steady since that time. In spite of the gravity of his condition news of his death bring a sadness to a host of friends here."

Took pictures of grave stones in the Union Mound cemetery of James and Adeline while on visit there 11 Oct 1997. Also of their daughter Edna Eugenia Lowe Reed and Evelyn Lowe

Apr 2010, appears to be a problem with dates on grave stone of their daughter "Ruby Evelyn Lowe" as info on the gravestone is listed as born 31 Oct 1894 and died 4 Nov 1898, at 4 years old.

Faye Frances in Apr 2010 located info on the internet from the Sumner Gazette Newspaper of the birth of one daughter to Mr and Mrs J.B. Lowe on 31 Oct 1890 and then she found a notation that a Ruby Evelyn Lowe died at age 4 on 3 Nov 1894. Even though the day and month are right the years are not. She thinks maybe the stone was put on later and person didn't remember right date, but seem to remember right day and month but years off. Doesn't make sense to me. I think we need a birth cert. or death cert. or some info from the cemetery to be sure why dates in paper differ from dates on the grave stone. Ralph listed her name as Evelyn N. with same dates that are on the grave stone. Since I have pictures of the grave stone that is what is on it. Now be it right or wrong, those are the dates on the stone and all have to go on at this time.

She also found the apparently wrong dates (she says) on another site, find a grave, on the interent but the dates are right with the stone, but now maybe the dates are not actually right.

Doesn't answer why they had a daughter Evelyn listed as age 4 in 1895 when census was taken if she had died in 1894 either, at least not to my satisfaction.

HUSBAND - Evan Loyd

Evan Loyd and Ann Jones and 4 children were listed on the manifest of the ship "the Columbia" from Liverpool to Philadlphia, PA 23 Jul 1842. Evan age 37, waiter, Ann 35, Mary 13, Sarah 7, Elizabeth 5, John 3. Was listed in Sarah's death cert. that she was born in 1841 PA.

Also under Serch Results from historical Records, Family Search under Wales Births and Baptisms, 1851-1907: Evan Loyd, father, spouse, Ann Jones, Name Evan Loyd, Gender: Male, Christening: 20 Feb 1823, Place: Capel Y Groes and Pentre Llyncymmer Independent, Llangwm and Cerrig-y-Druidiron, Denbigh, Wales, Not right Evan? Although they did have a son named Evan b. 1844/45 and died 1871 buried in Hopkinton cem next to mother Ann and on stone says son of Evan and Ann Loyd.

Our Evan Loyd who md Ann Jones before 1829 believe was Evan b. 1805-6 as Ann Jones was born cal 15 Jun 1806 Wales.

HUSBAND - Evan Loyd (Continued)

Ann Jones b. 15 Jun 1806 Wales Was before 1829 so seems to fit one of these Evan's . Date of death on Ann's stone was 15 Aug 1885 b. 1806 in Delaware Co. IA in Hopkinton cem.

Evan died before 1850 as last child was born 1848, believe was living in Millville in Jo Davies Co. IL and it is completely gone now so if died there and buried, would b nothing there.

Not sure of info on Evan to date. Obit of son said he came to US with his parents from Wales to Jo Daviess Co. IL when very young. Evan Loyd was not with wife Ann in census of Delaware co IA in 1850 so presume he had died before 1850 but after 1848 as last child was born then in IL, prob. Jo Davies Co. IL.

Not for sure if name was Loyd or Lloyd but most of the time this family used Loyd and being from Wales I would guess that would be right. Different sources used different spellings however.

Believe he had a son Evan Loyd as one is buried in Hopkinton cem. where Ann is buried.

Evan's stone in Hopkinton next to Ann Loyd's stone says he was son of Evan and Ann Loyd. b. 1844, d. 28 Jun 1871 Delaware Co. IA, Hopkinton cem.

Ended up in Jo Davies Co. IL by 1850 where Evan died and Ann was there as widow.

WIFE - Ann Jones

The Immigrant Ship Transcribers Guild for Ship Columbia, from Liverpool, England to Philadelphia PA 23 Jul 1842, Hand written manifest.

List of all passengers taken on board of Ship Columbia of Portsmouth N.H., 600 10/95 tons whereof Tho's B. Clark is Master at the Port of Liverpool and bound for Philadelphia.

193 persons listed. Among them # 60-65 was Evan Loyd age 37 male, waiter, Wales, Ann Loyd 35 female, Wales, Mary Loyd 13, female, Wales, Sarah Loyd 7 female Wales, Elizabeth Loyd 5 female, Wales, John Loyd 3 male, Wales.

According to this manifest. Evan was born ca 1805, Ann born ca 1807, Mary born ca 1829, Sarah born ca 1835, Elizabeth born ca 1837, John born ca 1839. Only problem was death cert. of Sarah said she was born 2 Nov 1841 PA. but other records said she was christened 16 Feb 1834. So my thought is Sarah b. 1834 died early and then they had a second Sarah b. 1841 or 42 in Pa

The Christening dates were: Mary 14 Jun 1829 Wales, Sarah 16 Feb 1834 Wales, Elizabeth 12 Jan 1836 Wales, John 3 Dec 1838 born 7 May 1838 Wales.

Ann b. 23 Dec 1843 Jo Davies Co. IL, Evan born 1844-1845 Jo Davies co. IL and Jackson born 1848 Jo Davies Co. IL.

Apr 2010 received picture located by Judy Fatheree from her Aunts collection and was listed as Ann Jones Lloyd. No date for the picture but Ann died 1885 and this pic was when elderly so lady with a frilly white cap on so probably taken in the 1880's and could have been copy from a tintype but came as a picture so not sure when was taken. Have one of her daughter Ann Loyd Lowe also. One of her granddau Alabama Lowe Parsons also.

Evan and Ann belive to have had 7 children. Not sure why the space between the first 1829 and next one baptized 1836.

Info from Delaware Co. IA wills #1091: Ann Loyd estate- Estate left to daughter Ann Lowe, wife of A.J. Lowe dau Elizabeth Ham (believe) wife of Robert--1870 census of Delaware Co. Which calculates birth as 15 June 1806. Also had been stated born 1805. Stone 4th tree to the right. When we went there to see stone in person. Pic of stone next to Ham stone.
	Another stone in the Hopkinton cem, looked like Evan Loyd d. Jan 28,1871 age 26. Another note, Evan Loyd age 26 son of Evan & Ann b. 28 Jan 1871 or died then Evan and Ann did have son Evan that know of but dates would fit, and no one else to date, was listed with Ann in deed so believe to be son, maybe died 1871 age 26 which birth would be b. 1845.

	?Find a Grave internet site appears to have one Ann Loyd with pic of stone believe to be our Ann next to her dau Elizabeth Ham. Birth date unknown and no death year but has died 23 Aug ? age 80 which would fit our Ann Loyd who was md to Evan Loyd in Wales. Hopkinton, IA Also a stone of Evan Loyd said son of Evan and Ann Loyd d. 1871. Other was Anna Lloyd somewhere in Hopkinton cem. b. 1785 and death 22 Aug 1865, but there is no stone on this site, only the gate going in so not sure about the stone.
	?Done a lot of research on Sarah Loyd and found her in most census and in birth doesn't agree and death cert. has info from Oak Hill, Jackson Co. OH. Which if this is dau of Evan and Ann, is only one that went to OH that we can find. She md a Thomas Sims and they had children Edward, Evan, Barbara Anne, John so names of children fit our Evan and Ann but mostly the birth of Sarah doesn't.
	?Not located anything on Jackson Loyd except in one census with Mother and siblings 1860 Delaware Co. IA .b. 1848 IL.
	Daughters Mary and Ann Loyd married Andrew Jackson Lowe and he had children with both. Have most of their info.

Notes CHILD 1 - Mary Loyd First Info from Ralph Lowe who received the info from Mrs Pearle Lowe Jenner of Parkersburg, IL (1944) Judy Fatheree Apr 2010 had located some pictures of children of Andrew Jackson Lowe and his wife Ann and her mother Ann Jones Lowe. Also a 5 generation picture that belive to be Ann Loyd Lowe and step dau Alabama Lowe and daughter, grand and gr granddau. This pic taken in Kansas city, MO and would have been before Ann died 1922 and Alabama died 1924. Youngest child looked like a girl about a year old or so. Can't tell that long ago with pictures. We have part of the bottom of the article missing so not sure who the last 3 gals are. Not sure absolutely who the 5 gen is either. Since Mary and Ann were sisters, Ann Jones Loyd would be Mary's mother as well. BIRTH: Baptism date 14 Jun 1829 Wales, cemetery stone listed age of 30 years which would be born 1829 and census record of 1850 listed her age as 27 which would be b. 1823. Faye Francis found the baptism record of the children of Evan and Ann in Wales and listed Mary's date 14 Jun 1829 Dihewyd, Cardigan, Wales. Elizabeth, Sarah, and John also listed there. MARRIAGE: Have copy of their marriage record from White Oak Springs, WI #01422 Iowa Co, Wisconsin Territory, WI. CHILDREN: She and Andrew had 5 children . DEATH: Have not located an obituary for her as maybe too early for newspapers. BURIAL: Cemetery stone in Hopkinton cem. of Mary Lowe says wife of A.J. Lowe age 30 yrs 23 Jul 1859. Have a picture of her stone taken Apr 1974 when I was at the Hopkinton cemetery. Find A Grave has info on Mary Lowe with picture of gravestone, Wife of A.J. Lowe Had info on A.J. in another cem with 2nd wife in Sumner, IA. picture of A.J. And Ann and gravestone. She was sister to Andrew's 2nd wife. Have an obit from probably Spencer IA paper from Ralph Lowe on John Loyd who was probably a brother to Mary and Ann. He came from Wales with parents as a child to Jo Davies Co. IL. then Delaware Co. IA. 1850 Delaware Co. IA pg 338 Dist 7 listed Mary as age 13 with mother and siblings. Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974. Some research done myself and Faye Francis and June Beals also has done some. Mary Loyd was listed in ship "Columbia" maifest Jul 1842 with Evan and Ann Loyd at age 13 ,. Ship went from Liverpool, England to Philadelphia, PA 23 Jul 1842 Believe this was date left but not sure. (have copy) Several internet sites list Mary Loyd as daughter of Evan and Ann Jones Loyd CHILD 2 - Elizabeth Loyd From other sources Elizabeth Loyd was married to Robert Ham and at least by 1880 she had 2 children and 1885 she was listed in her mother's will. Birth listed as abt 1827 Wales but if age 43 in 1880 that would be 1837 so something is off here. Elizabeth was listed in the Manifest of the ship "Columbia" from Liverpool, England to Philidelpia, PA and she was with parents an age listed 5. Christining date was 12 Jan 1836 Dihewyd, Cardegan, Wales 1st Marriage was 2 Nov 1856 Delawre Co. IA to William Windsor. 2nd Marriage probably about 1871. Delaware Co. IA to Robert Ham (has been spelled Haun). 1850 Millville, Jo Davies Co. IL: pg 131: Evan Loyd 44, Ann Loyd (Mother?), Elizabeth, Jackson. Believe this was father Evan who died in 1850 and wife Ann with daughter and son. 1860 Delaware Co. IA: John Loyd, 22 Wales, Sarah Hughes, 26 Wales, Henry Hughes, 3 Iowa 1857, Jackson, 12,

CHILD 4	- John Loyd
Find A Grave internet site listed John Lloyd b. 1839, died 2 Dec 1913. No pic of stone. No record of wife Sarah or 2 daughters, Mrs Hattie Baldwin and Mrs Adolor Gelino. Believe Adolor is name of husband as located one Leo Adolor Gelino in whole of US but he was md to Dora Agatha Gay. May have found Mrs Hattie M. Baldwin 1871-1953, Bethel cem, Logan, Harrison Col IA Plot: Sec 1 Row 28 but not sure this is John and Sarah's dau but believe it could be.
John Loyd was listed as age 3 in the manifest of the ship "Columbia" in 1842 from Liverpool, England to Philidelphia, PA w/parents. b. 1839 then.
Christining date was listed as 3 Dec 1838 Dihewyd, Cardegan, Wales. Another birth date was 7 May 1838.
Have obit of John and date of death was 2 Dec 1913 prob from Spencer IA paper, sent to me by Ralph Lowe 1974.
The obituary said John Loyd, an old settler of Clay county, died at his home in east 7th street, Spencer, Saturday evening, after an illness of many years standing. Mr Loyd was born in Wales, May 7, 1839 and when but a child came with his folks to America, settling in Jo Davis Co, (Jo Daviess) Illinois, and later to Delaware Co, Iowa where on October 12, 1870 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah McArdle. To this union five children were born only two living, Mrs Hattie Baldwin of Spencer and Mrs Adolor Gelino of Summit Twp. Two children, little girls died many years ago at Mason City where they had gone on a visit. While there they were taken ill with diptheria. A son died when but a baby.
Mr and Mrs Loyd came to Clay county in 1871 and took a homestead in Riverton Twp, and lived on it until the past summer, when Mrs Loyd was taken ill and compelled to go to a hospital for treatment and Mr Loyd went to live with his daughter, Mrs Gelino, in the meantime. Notes CHILD 4 - John Loyd (Continued) Spencer and moved into a home they had purchased on east 7th street, and where he died Saturday evening. Mr Loyd was very fond of his son in law, Mr Gelino, and his last request was for him. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, two daughters, a sister Mrs Anna Lowe of Sumner and a host of friends. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Methodist church of which the deceased had been a member for many years, the service being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Bond and the interment was in Riverside cemetery. CHILD 5 - Ann Loyd First info from Ralph Lowe 1974. He recieved some info from Pearl Jenner, dau. Jan 2010 Judy Bossotto Fetherree sent pictures of Pearle's family which she descends from and little more info on the families. Apr 2010 Judy Fathereee located a picture of Ann Loyd Lowe when she was an elderly lady and a very nice looking woman. Not sure when was taken as she died in 1922 and only had her name on the back of the picture. She also sent a picture that was listed as Five Generations and Mrs A.J. Lowe listed as great great grandmother and was taken in Kansas City, MO and would have been before 1922 and if one is her, she was yonger then the pic of her by herself sitting in chair. So people don't exactly fit what we have for the 5 gen pic. We don't have the end of the article or the date, but does list address that Alabama lived in when was taken and she died 1924. Mrs C.C. Parsons listed as great grandmother dau of Mrs Lowe, (and end of article) But Alabama was not the daughter of Mrs A.J. Lowe, her mother was sister to Ann Lowe. So wasn't really true 5 gen. BIRTH: Info from family and obituary. Obit says born 1842 and grave stone list date as 23 Dec 1843. MARRIAGE: Have copy of marriage record from Delaware Co. Iowa. Ann was age 17 and Andrew was 36. Ann was younger sister to Andrew's first wife. They had 8 children. DEATH: Obituary from the Sumner Gazette, Sumner, Bremer Co. CHRYSANTHEMUM MONTH.

November is the Time for the Worship of the Stongolun Flower.
The one thing that makes the flower lover look forward to November with pleasure after the summer's wealth of bloom has passed away is, says the New York Commercial Advertiser, that November is the month given up to the worship of the chrysanthemum, the peerless queen of autumn. Year by year in America and Europe interest in this wonderful flower increases.
The home of the best varieties of the chrysanthemum is Japan, the birthplace of the dwarf orange tree and oak-leaf holly, old in six-hundred years.
The highest distinction the artist can confer upon any of his subjects is the decoration of the chrysanthemum. The chrysanthemum is also the royal seal, and for centuries has been esteemed and loved by people, nobles and commons. When we think of the slow growth of varieties in garden flowers, how long the single rose must have been cultivated and variations noted and fostered before we had the immense full double sorts now known, we are obliged to believe that it is centuries since the careful Chinese and Japanese gardeners began to improve the chrysanthemum from the little single affair which is supposed to be original of all the varieties now in cultivation.

The Japanese guard the choicest flowers with jealous care, and it is possible that varieties are carefully cultivated in some parts of the empire that are superior to those known to occi-dentials. It is even believed by some travelers that in some parts of either China or Japan there exists that fabulous flower, the blue chrysanthemum.
Chrysanthemums of blue are figured on old porcelain and mentioned in written works.

Mrs. Siddmore in her book, "Junksha Days in Japan," states that in the house of the head man of the village of Kavara, the possessor of a wonderful collection of chrysanthemums, she was given a salad made from the petals of yellow chrysanthemums. It is also said that the Japanese put the petals of the flower into the sake cup to prolong life and keep free from misfortunes. It is possible that the renowned quality of the flower has some hidden virtue not generally known.

Thank you, for sending the obit. It does show the influence that he was of political mind and so may have been Justice there as was in Iowa. Not sure what "member of congressional committee" would mean. Was not aware he was a Mason so that may lead to another avenue to check out at some time.

We know his family history so was wondering if he was J.P. there as he was in IA, but as I said in previous e-mail I just sent you don't want any extensive research done as not in position to pay anyone to do that at this time but do appreciate the obit.

Thank you for sending the obit. It does show the influence that he was of political mind and so may have been justice there as was in Iowa. Not sure what "member of congressional committee" would mean. Was not aware he was a Mason so that may lead to another avenue to check out at some time.

We know his family history so was wondering if he was a P. If he was in IA, but as I said in previous e-mail I just want you don't want any extensive research done as not in position to pay anyone to do that at this time but do appreciate the obit.

Notes

HUSBAND - Sereno Norton Orvis
Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974.

BIRTH: Info from county history and Ralph. Info from Orvis folder and also from the Whitmire folder from the Sumner, IA library.

MARRIAGE: Info from county history and Ralph, and Orvis folder.

DEATH: Info from Ralph and cemetery records and Orvis folder. Checked Sumner Gazette newspaper 28 Feb to 20 Mar and no mention of his death.

Took picture of grave stone in the Wilson Grove cemetery while visiting there 11 Oct 1997.

CHILDREN: Believe they had 6 children, according to family info. A son Joseph was born about 1882-3 so wasn't listed in county history. Believe Bruce was one that died as an infant but have no dates for him. The Orvis folder listed 5 children, Bruce was not listed.

I checked Bremer Co. History 1883 627 .B96 H6 Iowa City Library and located pg 1182 S.N. Orvis son of Timothy B. and Rachel Orvis was born in Penn in 1835 and his father died in 1876 in Bremer Co. IA at the age of 86 and his mother is 82 years of age (1883). In 1841 his family moved to Madison Co. NY where they remained until 1850 then went to Boone Co. IL. Sereno was reared on a farm and received a limited amount of education. In 1861 they came to this state and settled in Clayton Co. for 3 years then came to Sumner, Bremer Co. Iowa.

He was trustee of town and also trustee of schools for number of years. He was one of those quite unassuming men who always make friends and never enemies.

Mrs. Harry Rose (Belle Lowe) of Vinton, and Mrs. G. A. Leibfarth, of Keokuk, came Monday to attend the funeral of their half-sister, Mrs. Orvis, and visit their mother, Mrs. Lowe, and numerous relation.

Mrs. Flagg's funeral was held Friday forenoon and her son Charles took her body to LaPlata, Missouri, for burial. Rev. Brettnall officiated at the funeral services held at the house. Mr. Flagg returned Monday from Missouri.

Ed. Winn and three daughters returned to their home in Cedar Rapids Wednesday morning. They had been up to attend the funeral of the girls' grandmother, Mrs. Orvis, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Winn is still here.

S. M. Barnes and Bert Rathbone drove down to Independence Monday and S. M. came home, Tuesday on the train, Bert driving back and bringing with him the wagon from which Mr. Barnes will sell Closson's remedies.

You will do well to notice in another column the program of the teachers' meeting next Friday evening and Saturday. Dr. Bassett, of Upper Iowa University, will give a lecture Friday evening at the M. E. church. Admission free.

Most of those who have read Thos. Dixon's book, "The One Woman," can see that the basis of it is the Herron-Rand affair, which was Grinnell's great sensation, not so long ago. At the time of the divorce it could not be discovered the amount of alimony that was paid the deserted wife by the mother of Miss Rand, but the judge has just disclosed the fact that she paid $60,000 for him. Mrs. Herron certainly got the best of the bargain.

F. J. Janson, of Milwaukee, was in this city Monday and Tuesday of this week and while here he bought of Albert Laabs, his photograph gallery and business. He comes into possession at once, and Mr. Laabs will run it for him until he returns from Milwaukee next Tuesday. Mr. Janson, although a young man, has had many years of experience in the business, working in some of the best galleries of the city. His methods and pictures will be up to date and he asks that you give him a trial and he will guarantee satisfaction.

For sale or trade, the old Adolf Schroeder property, also 20,000 acres of as good land as lays in the state of Minn. Address Central Minn. Land Co., Belgrade, Minn.

Mrs. Wm. Treptow, of Burt, and Mrs. Al. Bixby, of Whittemore, two daughters, have been with their mother for two weeks. Marcellus Madden, a son, of Lind, Minn., was here a week, going home last Friday. Mrs. Julia Robinson, of Oelwein, was up a week ago and Mrs. Fred Hurlbut, of Waverly, has been over several times lately to see her mother. We hope to hear of Mrs. Madden's early recovery.

New Time Card Sunday on R. T.

The Waterloo and Cedar Falls Rapid Transit will inaugurate a new time card on its Summer-Waterloo line next Sunday. There will be no change of time on the train that leaves here at 7:00 in the morning and returns at 12:20, noon. The passenger that now leaves at 3:20 in the afternoon will leave at 2:30 so as to make connection at Waterloo with the Great Western train for the south-west, a great accommodation to the Waverly and Tripoli people. This train will return at 5:00 o'clock. The new Summer-Waterloo limited, spoken of in another column, will leave here at 6:05 in the evening, making the run to Waterloo in one hour and fifty-five minutes and leaving there at 10:45 p. m., arriving in Sumner at 12:35, midnight. The freight will leave here ten minutes earlier in the morning—8:40—and return about seven in the evening.

Notice from a newspaper (Maybe Waterloo paper) on wedding of Mildred and Erwin from the Orvis & Heyer Folder from Sumner, IA library. No date for paper. They were married 11 Dec 1912. The copy was very hard to read. "Heyer-Winn Wedding-- A very attractive wedding took place Wednesday evening Dec 11, 1912 in Waterloo at the home of Mrs Edith Winn, 32 Cascaden avenue, when her daughter became the bride of Mr Erwin Heyer of Sumner, IA. The home was artistically decorated in a color scheme of red, green and white, ferns, roses and carnations being used in profusion. Twenty wedding guests, including only the immediate relatives, witnessed the ceremony which was characterized by the utmost simplicity. Promptly at 8 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs T.L. Forhan, sister of the bride, the bride and bridegroom unattended entered the parlor, preceded by Rev. W.B. Sanford, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, who officiated at the wedding service, the impressive ring ceremony being used. The troths were plighted beneath a floral canopy of smilax, ferns, poinsettias and red and white roses.

The bride appeared unusually charming in her beautiful robe of white satin charmeuse with over dress of white lace and trimmings of pearls and cut an trained. She carried a shower bouquets of bride's roses. After congratulations had been showered upon the young couple, the guests were invited to the dining room where places were found at one long table and two small tables with appointments of red and white Festoons of red and white crepe paper and Christmas bells were hung about the room and red and white roses and carnations formed the effective table centerpieces. The dainty color note was also evident in the hand decorated nut cases and the two course wedding repast served by Miss Margaret Winn, sister of the bride, assisted by Misses Matie Robertson, and Lena Prather and Martha Casel.

The bride came to this city from St. Paul five years ago and for three and a half years was employed with the Fowler company. She attended high school at St Paul and the Waterloo Business college in this city. Mrs Heyer is a very attractive young woman, and during the past few weeks has been honored by a number of pre-nuptial affairs. Lloyd Voelker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voelker, is considering entering Wartburg College at Waverly.

Many of the graduates have already taken their places in the business and industrial life of Sumner and other cities. Oskar Bartels has a good job working in the office of the Chicago Great Western Railroad Co.; at St. Paul, Minn., and intends to continue in the work in which he has made a promising start. Ella M. Borchering is enthusiastic over her work as secretary for W. H. Phipp, local insurance man, and indicates her intention of continuing with the work. Meta E. Roberts expects to continue her work at the Bluebird Cafe. Melba E. Keleher will continue her work at the Soda Grill. Lester M. Platte states that he expects to work with his father and grandfather in the Platto Cafe. Lorene Nolte, who is an employee of the Central States Telephone Co., will continue her work at Newton. Harold Traeger is and will be Asst. Deputy Clerk of Courts of Fayette county with headquarters at West Union.

Following the logical reasoning that the greatest occupation of them all is that of feeding the nation many of the boys, who graduated with the class of '28, will do their part in producing bumper corn crops in Iowa.

All of these boys who have indicated their intention of contributing toward the fame of Iowa as an agricultural state have indicated their intentions of working with Dad or relatives on the home place. The list includes Lester G. Blume, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blume, living 7 miles northeast; Sam J. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, living 2 miles west and ½ mile south; Alfred L. Leyh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leyh, living 1 mile south and 4 miles east; Dale N. Potter, will assist his uncle, W. W. Downing on the farms 4 miles northwest of Westgate, where he makes his home.

The profession of home-maker is second to none in the country. Knowing this many of the sweet girl graduates of last year's class will stay at home and assist their mothers with the work of keeping the place attractive. Those who, for the present at least, have decided to stay at home include Vellie H. Bathke, Verna R. Hammeter, Stella L. Hoepfner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoepfner, Hawkeye, Lucile M. Pagel, Violet E. Schott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schott, 1 mile north, ½ mile east, Amanda M. Tegtmeier, Ida C. Tegtmeier, Dorothy B. Wolfgram, Esther E. Harms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harms, living 2 miles south of Sumner.

"Steal 'Em Blind" Is the New Slogan

Pickpockets were said to be active at the Fayette County Fair last week, but that is nothing new. These nimble-fingered individuals generally work wherever there is a crowd.

It remains for August Frisch, northwest of Sumner, to tell of a new sort of robbery. "We were at the Fair one night last week," said August. "Our car was parked outside, and when we came to start for home our lights wouldn't work."

"An investigation disclosed the fact that somebody had taken the glass from the front lights and removed the light bulbs. Before we could come home we were obliged to go up town and purchase new bulbs."

There is always something new under the sun. This is an example of it. Tire and motor thefts are common. Light bulb stealing is an innovation.

A SMALL TWISTER SOUTH OF SUMNER

Minature Cyclone Sweeps a Small Territory East of Buck Creek Road

Tearing along with all the fury of a tornado, a windstorm Tuesday night caused considerable damage to a strip about a mile wide and two miles long south of Sumner Monday night.

Starting at the Wm. Knoploh farm on the Buck Creek road, the storm seemed to be most violent as it traveled eastward. At the C. K. Sell farm trees were blown down and the barn damaged; the barn on the Martin Schumacher farm was moved on its foundation; a door was blown from the barn and trees were blown down on the W. C. Sell farm occupied by John Knoploh; a building on the Herman Klemp farm was blown down; and the barn on the Henry Kasemeier farm near the old Dayton creamery was blown over. Trees on the old Miles farm occupied by John Smith were blown down in a great number, and other properties in that vicinity suffered a similar damage.

Corn was twisted in every direction in the 20 years he has lived on the farm, Henry Kirchoff says that he has never seen his corn in worse shape than it is at the present.

The wind, which lasted only a few minutes, was general in the community but not as serious as it was in this particular locality.

This storm was accompanied by rain and another downpour yesterday has brought added menace to the corn crop which is already threatened by the adverse August weather conditions.

MRS. MCCARTNEY BURIED IN SUMNER

Waterloo Woman, a Former Resident Died Last Sunday Night

Mrs. Edith Winn McCartney, mother of Mrs. E. W. Heyer and a sister of Mrs. Alma Pease of Sumner, died at 11:30 p. m., Sunday at St. Francis hospital of Waterloo, of diabetes after a long illness. She was 56 years old.

Funeral services were at 9:30 a. m. yesterday at the First Congregational church, Waterloo, conducted by Dr. J. Richmond Morgan, the pastor. The body was then brought to Sumner where a prayer service was conducted in the home of Mrs. Erwin W. Heyer, her daughter. Burial was made in the Wilson Grove Cemetery.

Mrs. McCartney was an active member of the First Congregational church at Waterloo and of its various societies. She also held membership in Mary Melrose chapter, D. A. R.; Chapter 128, Order of Eastern Star and Waterloo Woman's Club.

Edith Orvis was born December 17, 1871, two and one half miles northwest of Sumner and it was in this town that she grew to womanhood. She was married to Michael Edwin Winn, Sumner's first station agent for the Great Western Railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Winn moved to Waterloo in 1905 and Mr. Winn died in that city three years afterwards. On May 4, 1921, Mrs. Winn was married to Hugh McCartney, who survives.

Other relatives surviving are Mrs. Leo Forhan and Mrs. W. G. Blackley, Chicago, and Mrs. E. W. Heyer, Sumner, daughters; Mrs. Andrew Maitland, Ames, stepdaughter; J. H. Orvis, Estherville and Sereno Orvis, Waterloo, brothers; Mrs. Alma Pease, Sumner, sister; six grandchildren, two of whom, Winn and Marion Heyer, live in Sumner. Other local relatives are the nephews, Dr. James Whitmire and Roy Pease and the niece, Bonnie Pease.

Edith McCartney has a wide acquaintance among Sumner folks by virtue of her early residence here as well as later visits here at the home of her daughter, her sister, her aunt, Mrs. Frank Wescott and her cousin, Mrs. A. D. Allen. She was a woman of unusual personality and ability the life-long qualities of kindness, optimism and consideration for the welfare of others in preference to her own comfort predominating even during her last illness when she was in pain much of the time and knew that the coming of death was merely a matter of time. Her life stands out as a shining example of forgetfulness of self.

The Gazette joins a host of Sumner friends in extending to the relatives the sincerest sympathy in their bereavement and the consolation to be found in the thought that, altho Edith McCartney is dead, she has left behind an imperishable memory, that of a mother exemplifying those virtues of Christian womanhood which makes the world a better place for their having lived.

Death Of Mr. E. Winn.

The following, from the Waterloo Times-Tribune, of the 24th inst., tells the particulars of the death of M. E. Winn, formerly a prominent citizen of Sumner, and whose funeral occurred at Waterloo from the Catholic church, Sunday.

At 1:00 o'clock this morning, M. E. Winn, the popular Great Western agent, who has been lingering between life and death at the Presbyterian hospital, quietly passed into the great beyond, after three months of intense suffering.

While death had been expected at every moment for the last three days, the sudden termination of a useful life, will cast a gloom over his many friends residing in this city. Mr. Winn was very popular as agent of the Great Western and was admired by the men whom he came in daily contact with in a business way. He was not only popular in this city, but was admired by railroad men all over the entire system and held the confidence and esteem of the officials of the company.

Three months ago Mr. Winn was apparently in the best of health and at the time of the trouble in Oelwein, between the strikers and the company he was called to that city to assist in preventing an outbreak. During this time he contracted a cold, which settled in his lower limbs, which necessitated his being removed to the hospital as soon as he returned to his home in this city, where he has been since. During this time three operations have been performed upon his limb in the hopes of saving his life, but the disease which had infected the bone of the injured limb, spread rapidly through his entire system and after three months of careful nursing he finally succumbed to the disease. He has suffered intensely during his sickness but has always borne his trials patiently. All that loving hands and careful nursing could do, have been tried in the vain effort of nursing the sick man back to his former rugged health.

After the first month, the physician had every hope of his recovery as it was thought that they had conquered the disease and although he failed to gain in strength, all believed that he would soon be well, when on Wednesday morning, his heart suddenly grew weaker and a general decline was noticed, his family were immediately summoned and knowing that the end was drawing near spent most of the time at the bedside of the dying man.

Mr. Winn has been employed by the Great Western company for nearly 25 years, a large portion of which time was spent in service in this city. For a number of years he was an operator on that road, after which he was agent at Sumner, Iowa, and later being sent to Waterloo where he assumed charge about one year ago. He acted in the capacity of local agent in this city until he was removed to the hospital and a successor was not appointed until two weeks ago. The company postponed the appointment of an agent in this city as long as possible, in hope that he would be able to resume his duties, but when his illness extended into months, the appointment was made necessary. The company would have provided a place for him had he recovered from his illness. Mr. Winn will be greatly missed in railroad circles, being one of the most efficient men in the employ of the Great Western.

The deceased leaves a wife and three daughters, who resides at 25 Cascaden Place. Although they have known for some time that it would be impossible for Mr. Winn to recover, the end came as a terrible blow to the little family, all of whom were crushed by the untimely death.

C. H. Leverton has moved his sawing plant down to Jackson Ridge, about 14 miles from here, where he has quite a job of sawing; however he expects to return in three or four weeks. Meanwhile the logs and sticks will be piled up at the old stand where parties are anxious for his early return.

The carrier is sorry to loose such a good patron and Rev. Cruger will no doubt leave many regretting friends hoping he will find his new appointment agreeable and a larger field for usefulness.

There is no immediate danger of this community becoming depopulated or of this place losing its prestige or that the catalogue houses make any great inroads in this vicinity. Last Saturday Jan. 18th 1908 as the writer was driving into town, he noticed quite a number of teams, On Jan. 28 it seemed about the same. I felt curious to know about how many teams were in town. So made a canvass of the place, and after a careful count found two hundred and three conveyances belonging to parties outside of town. I noticed further that every conceivable place where teams could do no damage to property and safe to themselves was occupied and still others looking for hitching posts. As liberal as our town council is in supplying the farmers with suitable hitching places they are not adequate at such a time. Some farmers were bringing in big loads while others were taking out equal big loads. I al-

Jack Forhan, B-29 Navigator, Killed

Local Graduate Believed Lost in Raid over Man- churia July 29

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Heyer received the sad news Saturday morning from the War department that their nephew, Jack Forhan, a navigator in the Army Air corps, had been killed in action in a raid over Japan.

Jack was graduated from the local high school in 1939, and soon after that accepted a position with the Erie railroad at Cleveland, O., where he was located at the time of being inducted into the service.

He was a member of a Superfortress crew and a short time ago informed local relatives that the flight over Japan was the most thrilling experience of his life. Local relatives presume he was killed in action in the heavy bombardment over the Jap iron works located in Manchuria July 29 when two Superfortresses failed to return.

He was 22 years of age, the son of Mrs. Florence Forhan. He had been promoted to first lieutenant about eight months ago. He spent a year in Sumner, living at the Heyer home while completing his high school course.

Mrs. Heyer immediately got in touch with the young man's mother at Port Lambton, Ontario, and she left for that place Sunday night where memorial services were held Tuesday forenoon.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. C. J. Mar-dorf officiating.

William Leverenz, son of Carl Leverenz and his wife, Dorothy Korte, was born in Germany Apr. 7, 1866, and was baptized May 12 of the same year. At the age of 14 having received instruction he was confirmed in the Lutheran church Mar. 21, 1880.

In 1891 at the age of 25 he came to America. On Mar. 4, 1897, he was united in marriage with Marie Tegtmeier. Their home was blessed with five children: two sons and three daughters, of whom one son, August died of influenza Mar. 10, 1919, while in the service of his country.

He was a member of St. John's Lutheran church and was a faithful attendant at divine services.

His death is mourned by his wife; his children, Malinda, Mrs. Carl Nolte of Seattle, Wash., Elnora, Mrs. Adolph Koelling of Westgate, Walter on the home farm east of town, Bertha, Mrs. Albert Oltrogge of Westgate; two grandchildren; a brother and two sisters in Germany; two brothers, Fred of Epping, North Dakota, and August of Chandon, Calif. Two sisters, one of them his twin, preceded him in death. Two grandsons, Myron and Walter Nolte are in the armed forces somewhere on the Pacific.

First National Bank of er is observing the 72nd rsary year of its founding.
s the single survivor of a
of four banks that have ed within that period in y of Sumner.

following history of the s reprinted from the Sep-12, 1950 issue, which d the Golden Anniversary founding of this oldest er business institution.

ublished in 1900, survivors
o World Wars and the ag crisis of the depression and the "Banking Holiday"
e early 'thirties, the First al Bank has emerged grounded as one of Sumeading business firms.

di management and conave but sound banking es, are the foundations on the First National Bank been established.

history of the Sumner inon tells the story of the rise from a struggling in the early 1900's to position it holds in er business today.

Citizens State Bank, later come the First National of Sumner, opened its
for business on September 00.

lication for charter had made in late April of that oy a group of local men that the local men would have to choose another name.

Therefore they filed for a state charter and formed a corporation under the name Citizens State Bank.

The first meeting of the Corporation of the Citizens State Bank was held at the Hilmer and Keding lumber office in Sumner, Iowa, on June 9, 1900. The lumber office was located at the present site of the Mr. and Mrs.
Myron Guritz home, just north of U.B.C. Building Center.

Twenty-three men supplied the $50,000, the amount of capital stock authorized for the newly founded banking organization and two months later in September, after receipt of authorization from the Auditor of the State, the Citizens State Bank started in business.

The 23 men included as original stock holders in the banking institution were: F. H. Frank,
W. H. Heyer, Nelson McCook,
J. H. McCook, H. Specht, Fred
Engle, Fred Bohle, J. F. Schoephoerster, John Waskow, Jacob Glattly, J. B. Lowe, Fred Hoepfner, F. W. Schwake, Henry Wahlman, J. F. Wittenberg, Herman H. Niemann, Chancy Carpenter, R. D. McCook, H. C.
Schnadt, E. S. Fonda, Thos. Mc-
Cook, Frank Wescott and C. W.
Pennington.

The affairs of the corporation were conducted by a board of

H. Wehrmacher, F. W. Schwake,
W. H. Heyer and E. S. Fonda.

The Citizens State Bank needed nearly 90 days to accumulate the first $100,000 in deposits, probably due to the fact that the first three years after 1900 were such that farmers in this area realized poor crops. 1901 was reported to have been an extremely dry year, while 1902 and the succeeding year proved to be excessively wet.

Deposits during those first five years of the Citizens State Bank increased from $7,097.85 the day of its opening in 1900 to $256,750.88, Sept. 18, 1905.

1905, however, was to be the last year the Citizens State Bank would operate under the state charter. In 1906 it was converted to a National institution under the name First National Bank of Sumner.

The National charter was granted in May of 1906.

Chancy Carpenter had died shortly after the opening of the Citizens State Bank and Frank Wescott had been accepted as a member of the board of directors.

This was the only change from the original board which had directed affairs of the Citizens
State Bank, when this organization was converted to the First National Bank of Sumner.

Officers of the board of direc-

ancial statement published Sept.
18, 1910, indicated the bank had received deposits totaling $580,- 376.20 an increase of over $300,- 000 in deposits for the five year period from 1905 to 1910.

Through the years, various members of the board of directors and bank employees were replaced by new members, due to deaths and withdrawals from the organization.

In 1906 W. A. Heyer, present cashier and oldest bank employee in point of service was obtained as assistant cashier.

In 1908 H. W. Messerer became an employee and in 1910 Elmer Mohling was accepted at the bank as stenographer and bookkeeper.

P. M. Sorg joined the staff at the bank in 1914, the year that C. G. Carpenter became a new member of the board of directors, and in 1919 C. W. Pennington and H. H. Niemann were admitted as new members of the board.

The next year Clarence Niemann and Arthur Thies joined the bank staff. Sorg, Niemann and Thies are still members of the staff.

In 1921 the bank building was remodeled and all new fixtures installed. These new fixtures of 1921 are still in use.

In 1922 W. A. Heyer and Elmer Mohling became new members of the board of directors.

Patricia Heyer Weds Clayton O'Brien Sunday

In a pretty candlelight service in St. John's American Lutheran church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Miss Patricia Heyer, daughter of the C. E. Heyers, became the bride of Clayton E. O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed O'Brien. Rev. A. G. Langholz read the double ring ceremony.

The altar was banked with baskets of pastel flowers on either side and lighted candelabra. The pews were marked with white bows backed by huckleberry.

Miss Pauline Boehm played a prelude of organ selections by Pomberg and also accompanied Mrs. John Fehrs, Des Moines, as she sang "Because," "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Wagner's "Lohengrin's Wedding March." Mendelssohn's Recessional was also used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin, fashioned with a peter-pan collar, long sleeves ending in points over the wrists and self-covered buttons down the back to the waist. The skirt featured stand-out pleats in the back ending in a long train, topped by a row of self-covered buttons, and two rows of crocheted lace across the front.

The bride wore a short veil of illusion net brought from France by her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Heyer. It was held in place by gold hairpins, which are a family heirloom. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses centered with gardenias.

Miss Gretchen Heyer attended her sister as maid of honor, and Miss Mary Heyer, Des Moines, also a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Both wore green satin gowns with cap sleeves, peter-pan collars and self-covered buttons to the waist. The skirts had stand-out pleats in the back topped by a bow. They wore matching Juliet caps and white lace mitts. They carried colonial bouquets.

Kathryn Platte, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a green satin gown, lace mitts and Juliet cap. She carried a basket of red rose petals scattering them down the aisle preceding the bride and her father.

Everett O'Brien attended his brother as best man. James R. Heyer, brother of the bride was groomsman. Warner Heyer, brother of the bride and Richard Creager, cousin of the groom were ushers. The bridegroom, his attendants and ushers, all wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece grey gabardine dress suit with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held for 130 guests in the church parlors. A three-tiered wedding cake decorated in green and white, graced the center of the bridal table.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Fehrs of Des Moines, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Vierth of Marshalltown, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kretschmar and children of Greene, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Bries of Holy Cross, Mrs. Frank Miller Jr. and children of Beaman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tuttle of Norway and daughters Millicent and Miriam of Iowa State College, Ames and Barbara of Waterville, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hochberger and Diane of Waterloo, Mrs. Roy Bailey and son, Paul, of Columbus City, Mrs. Ross Woodward of Osage and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Newton and family of Charles City. Also other guests were present from Floyd, Fredericksburg, New Hampton, Oelwein, Hawkeye, Lawler and Westgate.

The bride attended the University of Iowa, Iowa City, and Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls. Prior to her marriage she was employed as bookkeeper by W. H. Heyer Sons. The groom is a veteran of World War II, having spent 3 years in the Navy. Since his discharge he has been engaged in farming.

As the couple left on a wedding trip the bride was wearing a grey suit with navy blue and pink accessories. Upon their return home the couple will reside on a farm near Sumner.

Whitmire

DEATH SUMMONS WELL KNOWN LADY

Millicent M. Whitmire Died at Her Home in Sumner
Monday Morning

Millicent M. Whitmire, aged 53 years, passed away Monday morning at 9:10 at her home in Sumner. Death followed a brief serious illness which had followed a long period of ill health.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alma Pease, and burial was made in Wilson Grove Cemetery.

She is survived by her son, James; two sisters, Mrs. Edith McCartney, of Waterloo, Iowa; and Mrs. Alma Pease, of Sumner; and two brothers, Joseph H. Orvis, of Estherville, Ia; and S. N. Orvis, of Waterloo and many other relatives and friends.

She was a member of the Sumner M. E. Church and of the Rebekah Lodge.

Millicent M. Whitmire, aged 53 years, second daughter of Anna Lowe and Sereno N. Orvis, died at her home in Sumner, Monday, December 12, at 9:10 a. m. 1927.

She spent the early years of her girlhood at her farm home north of town, coming to Sumner at the age of seven years with her mother and the little family of young children, when the husband and father passed away. Here she grew to young womanhood, received her education in the Sumner schools and took up the duties of teacher, both in the rural and town schools—her last position being in the 8th grade of the Oelwein schools.

She was a deep student and a thinker, a fine musician, and a great lover of her home. She was married in 1893 to Dr. W. L. Whitmire and to this union one son was born, Dr. James E. Whitmire, now connected with Ancker Hospital at St. Paul. She has been a semi-invalid for a number of years—and the past few weeks was confined to the house. Her condition was not considered alarming until Sunday when after a few hours her spirit took its flight.

O change! O wondrous change
Burst are the prison bars
This moment there, so low.
So agonized, and now
Beyond the stars.

O change! Stupendous change!
There lies the soulless clod!
The sun eternal breaks—
The new immortal wakes
Wakes with his God.

WERE MARRIED AT CHARLES CITY

Dr. W. L. Whitmire and Miss Martha
M. Cass United Last Saturday Afternoon

5-22-1925

Dr. W. L. Whitmire, popular local physician, and Miss Martha M. Cass, a former resident of Sumner, and who for the past year has been making her home with her brother, E. M. Cass, President of the State Bank of Sumner, were united in marriage last Saturday afternoon, May 2nd, at the Congregational Church at Charles City, Rev. Swan, pastor of the church performing the ceremony.

They will make their home in Sumner. Both are so well known here that no introduction is necessary. Dr. Whitmire has been a successful medical practitioner here for the past thirty-five years, during which time he has actively identified himself with the affairs of the community. He has an acquaintance throughout the entire community and is honored and respected by all. The bride is a lady of much charm and ability, and has a large host of admiring friends in the community.

The Gazette joins in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes.

These many friends of Mrs. Millie Orvis Whitmire and Mr. Charles Dawson will be surprised this morning to hear that these two popular residents of our city were married last evening, but nevertheless will join heartily in good wishes and congratulations.

The happy event took place at the Methodist parsonage at 8:30 Wednesday evening, May 3, 1916, Rev. Walter Piper officiating, the witnesses being Mrs. Piper and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Linn.

They will reside in Mr. Dawson's house on Second street, which is undergoing a number of improvements.

Miller-Heyer Nuptials Read at Home Wedding Wednesday

The marriage of Miss Marian Louise Heyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Heyer, and Frank L. Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Miller sr. of Beaman, was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock before the fireplace in the Heyer home. Rev. C. J. Mardorf read the single ring ceremony in the presence of 40 guests.

Aug 25 1943

The bride, given in marriage by her father, descended the stairway as Miss Patricia Heyer played Wagner's "Lohengrin's Wedding March." Miss Heyer also accompanied Miss Margaret Wescott, as she sang "Because" and "Ich Liebe Dich."

The bride was attired in a pastel green wool street length dress, and wore a shoulder corsage of white gladioli and red roses.

Miss Ruth Mardorf, friend of the bride, and John H. Nickerson, of Beaman, cousin of the groom, attended the couple.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of the Sumner high school with the class of 1938, and graduated from Iowa State college at Ames in 1942. She is a teacher in the Beaman consolidated school. Mr. Miller is engaged in farming near Beaman, where the couple will be at home after Aug. 30.

Heyer-Winn Wedding

A very attractive wedding took place Wednesday evening Dec. 11th, 1912, in Waterloo at the home of Mrs. Edith Winn 32 Cascade avenue, when her daughter, Miss Mildred Ann, became the bride of Mr. Edwin Heyer of Sumner, Ia. The home was artistically decorated in a color scheme of red, green and white, ferns, roses and carnations being used in profusion. Twenty wedding guests, including only the immediate relatives, witnessed the ceremony which was characterized by the utmost simplicity. Promptly at 8 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. T. L. Forhan, sister of the bride, the bride and bridegroom unattended entered the parlor, preceded by Rev. W. B. Sanford, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, who officiated at the wedding service, the impressive ring ceremony being used. The troths were plighted beneath a floral canopy of smilax, ferns, poinsettias and red and white roses.

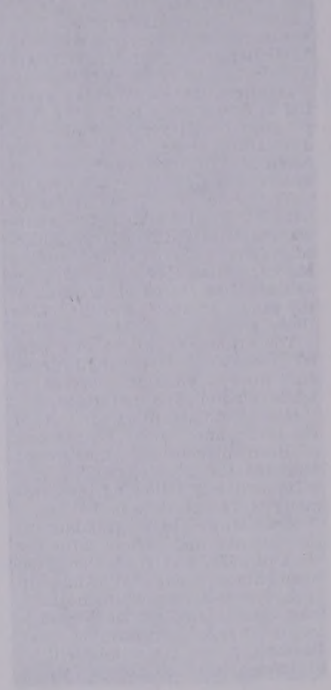

The bride appeared unusually charming in her beautiful robe of white satin charmeuse with over dress of white lace and trimmings of pearls and cut en trainee. She carried a shower bouquets of bride's roses. After congratulations had been showered upon the young couple, the guests were invited to the dining room where places were round at one long table and two small tables with appointments of red and white. Festoons of red and white crepe paper and Christmas bells were hung about the room and red and white roses and carnations formed the effective table centerpieces. The dainty color note was also evident in the hand decorated nut cases and the two course wedding repast served by Miss Margaret Winn, sister of the bride, assisted by Misses Mattie Robertson, Lena Prather and Martha Casel.

The bride came to this city from St. Paul five years ago and for three and a half years was employed with the Fowler company. She attended high school at St. Paul and the Waterloo Business college in this city. Mrs. Heyer is a very attractive young woman, and during the past few weeks has been honored by a number of pre-nuptial affairs. Mr. Heyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heyer, who reside at Sumner, where he is in the lumber business and where the young people will be at home after Jan 1.

Mueller-Heyer Wedding

Miss Ella M. Heyer was united in marriage, Thursday evening, Dec. 9th, 1909, to Mr. John G. Mueller, by Rev. H. Bredow, of the Lutheran church, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heyer, in Sumner.

The bride, one of Sumner's most charming young women, was beautifully gowned in white Persian lawn, and carried white roses.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Edith Mueller (sister of the groom) as bridesmaid, and Mr. Erwin Heyer (brother of the bride) as best man, and the ceremony was witnessed by the wedding company, limited to immediate relatives of the contracting couple.

A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony, at which the choice viands were enjoyed along with the sociability occasioned by the happy nature of the gathering. Gifts of much worth and beauty were bestowed as wedding presents, attesting the gifts of love and friendship that went with them.

Very few young women are more generally beloved by those with whom they mingle from day to day, nor more highly esteemed generally by friends and acquaintances, than is Ella Heyer in Sumner, where she has grown up, and when they wish her joy it is not a mere formality but rather a heart expression.

The groom is also a produce of Sumner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mueller, and is a young man of sterling qualities of head and heart, and highly esteemed. He has a good position in the Hart-Parr gasoline engine works in Charles City, in which city they will establish their home, and to which place they will be attended by the good wishes generally of the people of Sumner.

Miss Ella M. Heyer was united in marriage, Thursday evening, Dec. 9th, 1909, to Mr. John G. Mueller, by Rev. H. Bredow, of the Lutheran church, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heyer, in Sumner.

Miss Heyer Becomes Bride in California

Monday, Sept. 24, at a 4 o'clock double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends, Miss Jean Alice Heyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Heyer of Sumner, became the bride of Ensign Robert Cismowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cismowski of Riverside, Calif. The wedding was solemnized in St. Anthony's church at Long Beach, Calif., with Rev. Daniel Fl. Sullivan officiating.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a gown of white satin and tulle, fashioned with long train and yoke inset of net and lace. Her finger-length veil was caught in a coronet of tulle and pearls. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom and carried a white Bible with a white orchid and long streamers of bovardia. For her going-away costume the bride chose an apple green wool suit with brown accessories.

Miss Shirley Shannon was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink satin and tulle, with large tulle hat and carried a sheath of pink roses and blue delphinium. Jean Darlington, wearing a frock of rose taffeta, served as flower girl and the best man was Phil St. Marie.

Following the wedding, Mrs. Leo Heyer, mother of the bride, entertained 20 close friends and relatives, honoring the bridal party, at a charmingly appointed dinner at Hotel Lafayette. The table was beautifully decorated with a three-tier wedding cake banked with bovardia and maiden hair ferns and tall white tapers in crystal candelabums. Marion Darlington Pratt, accompanied by Miss Ruth Pratt, entertained with appropriate whistling selections. Both are aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Cismowski graduated from Sumner high school and attended Iowa State college at Ames. She has been employed by the Dobyn's Footwear Co. for the past six months.

Ensign Cismowski graduated from St. Francis DeSales, Riverside, Calif., and attended Riverside Junior college until entering the service as a naval aviation cadet, graduating at Pensacola, Fla., last May.

After a short honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead, Ensign and Mrs. Cismowski will reside for a time in San Diego, later moving to Alameda, Calif.

40 YEARS AGO January 21, 1909

Walter Heyer, the popular assistant cashier of the First National Bank, was married Jan. 14, at Waverly to Miss Hattie Marr. Mr. Heyer is one of our best young men, and we feel safe in saying that one of his taste, would select none but the very best of Waverly's young ladies.

The bride, who approached the altar on the arm of Dr. J. E. Whitmire, wore a gown of white imported Chantilly lace with a Mary, Queen of Scots, headdress, with the fingertip veil and chapel-length train. Her gown was fashioned with a rounded net neckline, below which was a full berth, long fitted sleeves ending in points at the wrist; self covered buttons descended down the back and on the sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses with frieze and ivy.

Mrs. J. R. Winks, Iowa City, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina gown of green lace. Her veil of matching lace fell from a Juliette cap. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses with frieze and ivy.

Mr. Albert Braun, Waterloo, friend of the groom, served as best man. Mr. J. R. Winks, Iowa City, and Mr. Albert Buhrrow, Readlyn, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Whitmire chose a navy dress with matching accessories and wore a pastel rose corsage. Mrs. Maurer was present in a navy suit with matching accessories. She also wore a pastel rose corsage.

Longtime Resident Of Sumner Area Dies Sunday

Mrs. Alma Pease, 79, Had Been In Ill Health
For Several Weeks

Barn, Cattle Destroyed b

Mrs. Alma Pease, 79, long-time resident of the Sumner community, died Sunday, March 9 at the Sumner Community Memorial Hospital. She had been ill for several weeks prior to her death.

The funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. of Donald Artman, officiating. Services were in charge of the Sumner Funeral Chapel. Burial was in Wilson Grove Cemetery north of Sumner.

Alma Esther Orvis, daughter of Sereno K. and Anna Lowe Orvis, was born Feb. 16, 1879, on a farm two and a half miles north of Sumner.

Her father died when she was five years of age, and the family moved to Sumner, where she resided most of her life and where she attended the public schools. She taught school for three years in both Fayette and Chickasaw counties.

She married Roy E. Pease in Sumner on Dec. 1, 1898. He was a farmer and stockman. They made their home on a farm north of Sumner. Four children were born to this union: Dr. Theron J. Pease of Washington, Ia.; Mildred Mary, who died in infancy; Bonnie Helen, Mrs. John E. Straub of Belleville, Ill., and Roy E. Pease of Sumner, who was born two weeks after the father's death which occurred on Sept. 27, 1914.

Mrs. Pease was a member of the Methodist Church and had been active in its affairs for years. She had been a member of the Ladies Aid and later in the W.S.C.S. At the time of her death she was an Honorary Steward of the Church.

Surviving are three children; five grand children; four great grandchildren; and two brothers, Joe H. Orvis, Estherville, Iowa and Rene Orvis of Sumner.

Two sisters, Edith Winn McCartney and Millicent Whitmire, preceded her in death.

Tons of burning baled hay lighted the early morning sky for several hours after the barn in which it was stored had burned to the ground at the Donald Schlatter farm two and a half miles southwest of Hawkeye Monday morning. The fire was believed to have started at about 4:30 a.m.

The 48 ft. x 50 ft. structure and all its contents were completely destroyed. The loss, in addition to the building itself and the hay and straw, included 20 head of young heifers and two calves and a farm dog.

The Hawkeye Fire Department was called to the scene and succeeded in extinguishing fire which had spread to a nearby brooder house and granary with only slight damage resulting to these buildings.

The fire was too far along on the barn, itself when firemen arrived for the department to save any part of this structure, however.

Damage was estimated at $25,000. It was reported the loss was covered by insurance.

All Students Enrolled In Driver Training Receive Licenses

To clarify any misunderstanding there may be regarding the recent driver's training permit tests taken by members of the Driver Education class, instructor Dick Hogan has issued a special bulletin for publication on the test results.

A total of 24 students of the 32 in the class were examined in the tests given by the Driver's License examining team and of that number, 21 passed. The three that failed were re-examined later at West Union and passed the tests at that time. Three others had instruction permits, thus automatically qualifying for the issuing of the Restricted Driver Training Permit.

IAL REFORMER

Obituary.

Roy Elmer Pease was born in Kane county, Ill., July 11, 1874, and died at his home near Sumner, Iowa, Sept. 26, 1914.

His parents moved from Illinois to the homestead six and a half miles north of Sumner when he was six months old. There he spent the years of his childhood and early manhood. From there he moved with his parents to Sumner where he attended school. He was united in marriage with Miss Alma Orvis, Dec. 2, 1898. To this union were born three children, one who died in infancy, and Theron and Helen who survive their father.

They moved to their present home four years ago, where he has given untiring energy in building up a permanent home. He was a great home lover, a fond husband and an indulgent father, and loving and considerate son to the parents who mourn his loss, and who have been with him through his illness.

Two sisters survive him, Mrs. W. E. Goodall, of Poplar, Minn., and Mrs. V. C. Austin, of Sunnyvale, Calif., who were here for the funeral.

The esteem in which Mr. Pease was held was shown in the solicitude of the many friends who have remembered him in his illness, and the affection in which he was held by his family attest the fullness with which he filled the place of father and husband.

The funeral services were conducted at the residence, beginning at 12:30 noon, Rev. C. E. McKelvey of the U. B. church officiating and Rev. W. M. Grafton, of the Presbyterian church offered prayer.

The Odd Fellows of Sumner and Fredericksburg showed their loyalty to their brother by their attendance, and took charge of the service, F. R. Kerr and Rev. McKelvey being asked by Noble Grand L. L. Zbornik to perform their parts. C. W. Pennington acted as marshal for the occasion.

The hymns rendered by the choir showed the sympathy that was felt by the singers. Many beautiful flowers were brought by loving friends. Over 80 autos and about 30 carriages were in the procession to the cemetery, and over 300 people viewed the remains at the residence.

Friends and relatives from out of town called here by the death of Mr. Pease were as follows:

V. C. Austin from Sunnyvale, Calif., and his wife who came from Cleveland, Ohio, where she had been called by the sickness of a relative; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pease and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Barlow from Waterloo, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Jas Kendall from Elgin, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pease from Humboldt, Iowa; J. H. Orvis from Esterville; Mrs. C. M. Green, Harrison, Ark.; Mrs. Edith Winn and daughter Ark.; Mrs. Edith Winn and daughter Marguerite from Waterloo, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Muirhead, Elgin, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Snyder and Mrs. L. N. Van Sickle from Oelwein, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Payne from Maynard, Iowa; and Mrs. F. W. Muir and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ford, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Nordike, from Maynard, Iowa.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us through the illness and death of our loved one.

NOTES:

Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974.

BIRTH: Obituary listed complete date and place.

MARRIAGE: Info from June Beals and County history of Emmet Co. and obituary.

DEATH: Obituary from the Estherville Daily News, Estherville, IA 8 Feb 1960 pg 1. "Joseph H. Orvis Dies at 77 -- Joseph H. Orvis, 77, well known Estherville resident, retired railroad dispatcher and newspaper correspondent, died suddenly Saturday at 3:20 p.m. at his home, 1014 1st Ave. N. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Mr Orvis had complained of not feeling well the night before but was up and about his home as usual Saturday and according to his family, had just sat down in a chair when he suffered the fatal attack. Death was instantaneous.

Mr Orvis was well versed in the early history of Estherville and railroading throughout this area.

+++ Prior to his death Mr Orvis was the eldest living elder of First Presbyterian Church.

He also was a 50 year member of North Star Chapter, No. 447 Masonic Lodge of which he was tyler, a member of Jephtha Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, having held the office of Sentinel in that organization for more than 35 years.

Mr Orvis served as city treasurer from 1933 to 1939 and after his retirement from railroading he served as correspondent to several Iowa newspapers and radio stations. During World War II he was a Western Union messenger.

+++ Joseph Harding Orvis was born July 17, 1882 at Sumner, the son of Sereno and Anna Orvis. He received his education in the Sumner schools and worked in that area until coming to Estherville as a relief cashier and ticket clerk for the railroad. When the Rock Island assumed ownership of the BCR&N railway he became a train dispatcher and served in that capacity from August 1902 until Jan 1, 1931.

Before coming to Estherville, Mr Orvis had been a telegraph operator for the old BCR&N doing relief work for four years in about 40 different stations from West Branch, Iowa to Watertown and Sioux Falls, SD.

+++He was married Aug. 17, 1904 to Mayme Pfiffner of Emmetsburg and following their marriage Mr and Mrs Orvis established their home here and have lived here since that time.

Mr Orvis is survived by his widow; two daughters, Marion who is principal and second grade teacher at Margaret Mantiece School and Mrs A.W. (Eleanor) Nelson, Altadena, Calif, and three grandchildren, Morley, Carolyn and Loretta Nelson. Mrs Nelson, Carolyn and Loretta were here in August to be with Mr and Mrs Orvis at the time of their 55th wedding anniversary.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters and two brothers.

+++Funeral services are to be Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in First Presbyterian Church, the Rev James K. Lyon officiating. Burial will be in East Side cemetery with Masonic graveside services.

Honorary pallbearers are to be Robert Knight, Joy Horswell, W. C. Hilburn, W.B. Hammer, Selby Brems and E.W. Robinson.

Active pallbearers are Dr. Terry Anderson, Robert Griffith, Arnold Yates, Hoyt Luthly, Glenn Hackett and Lloyd Boone."

TUCSON, ARIZ. (AP)—Convict, Caryl Chessman today was granted a stay of execution, scheduled Feb. 19 in the San Quentin gas chamber.

Judge Richard Chambers, chief justice of the U.S. Ninth Circuit of Appeals, also refused to issue a certificate of probable cause for appeal.

This would have granted Chessman a hearing before the full court of Appeals in an effort to reverse U.S. District Judge Louis Goodman's refusal to grant a writ of habeas corpus.

Chessman now is expected to appeal again to the U.S. Supreme court, which has considered the case 13 times.

Should this effort fail, an appeal for clemency probably will be made to California Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Chessman was sentenced to death in 1948 on charges of kidnapping, robbery and perverted sexual assaults against two young men. He has been in death row nearly 12 years and has escaped seven earlier execution attempts through various legal moves.

Attorney George T. Davis based the application for appeal on three main grounds:

1. An act of God, brought about when the court reporter at the trial died before completing transcribing his notes, had denied Chessman equal rights and protection.

2. Chessman had been subjected to cruel and unusual punishment by being kept on death row so long.

3. Section 209 of the California Penal Code under which Chessman was sentenced to death has been amended.

Judge Chambers heard Chessman's latest application for a stay of execution in Tucson Friday.

A. L. Wirin, counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, filed an immediate appeal for a stay of execution will be made to the U.S. Supreme Court.

"We have not yet decided whether we will appeal to the entire court or to a single justice," he said.

"We will appeal on three grounds, two of which Judge Goodman said were impressive."

"The first will be that Chessman's detention in San Quentin death row for 11½ years constitutes cruel and unusual punishment."

"The second will be that Chessman was denied due process of law because Judge Fricke (the judge who presided at the original trial) instructed the jury that no 'racial movement' was necessary."

Joseph H. Orvis Dies at 77

Symphony Is On Concert High Point

BY ROBERT N. LEE

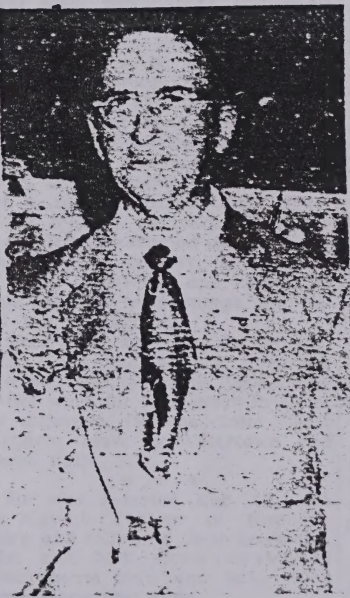

Joseph H. Orvis, 77, well known Estherville resident, retired railroad dispatcher and newspaper correspondent, died suddenly Saturday at 3:20 p.m. at his home, 1014 1st Ave. N. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Mr. Orvis had complained of not feeling well the night before but was up and about his home as usual Saturday and, according to his family, had just sat down in a chair when he suffered the fatal attack. Death was instantaneous.

Mr. Orvis was well versed in the early history of Estherville and railroading throughout this area.

Prior to his death Mr. Orvis was the eldest living elder of First Presbyterian Church.

He also was a 50-year member of North Star Chapter, No. 447, Masonic Lodge of which he was tyler, a member of Jephtha Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, having held the office of Sentinel in that organization for more than 35 years.

Mr. Orvis served as city treasurer from 1933 to 1939 and after his retirement from railroading he served as correspondent to sev-

Yesterday's concert by the Minneapolis Civic Symphony orchestra will long be remembered as one of the high points in the history of the Estherville Community Concert association. The organization is comprised largely of business and professional people, teachers, housewives and students for whom music is an avocation or hobby. The group, under the capable direction of Thomas Nee, assistant conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony, performed an ambitious program admirably.

It is an interesting commentary on present day life, full to overflowing as it is with PTA, study groups, service clubs, charity drives, fund-raising responsibilities and myriads of other worthy demands on what was once one's spare time, that a group of 70 people still find time in their off-business hours to do something as enjoyable and worthwhile as making delightful symphonic music.

This organization, which must surely be limited in rehearsal time, plays with surprising precision and certainly commendable ensemble. Much of the credit, of course, goes to Mr. Nee who does a masterful job. A special bouquet should go to whoever is responsible for the programming of Sunday's concert—it was all good music and at the same time understandable by all.

It is curious why symphony concerts should be regarded by some as something so "long hair" that it is not comprehensible.

What could be easier to listen to than the Tchaikowsky "Symphony in C minor," for example? It is simply a delightful musical structure built upon melodious peasant folk tunes and so rhythmic that one can barely resist tapping his toes. This is strong, vibrant music, tremendously listenable and as down to earth as a medley based on Yankee and Old Black Joe

It would be unfair to the orchestra's credit without a word of praise for its wonderfully interesting playing of the music.

Rimsky-Korsakov's "Espagnol", with its intricate instrumentation, is always a crowd pleaser. This was no exception. The woodwinds on the program, very talented players, gave the organization. Especial mention were some of the oboe and bassoon parts neatly executed, and tone.

Probably one of the most beautiful, simple, haunting and beautiful musical literature, "Solweig's Song" "Peer Gynt Suite No. 1" Mr. Nee gave this sensitive reading, any major orchestra

So often one hears tenors comment that the music on a program is as easy to listen to as the selections in the last half. In yesterday's program, joyment for everyone was the keynote. To the end, all the beautifully proportioned music from the Serenade to the Viennese waltz "Die Fledermaus" was a success.

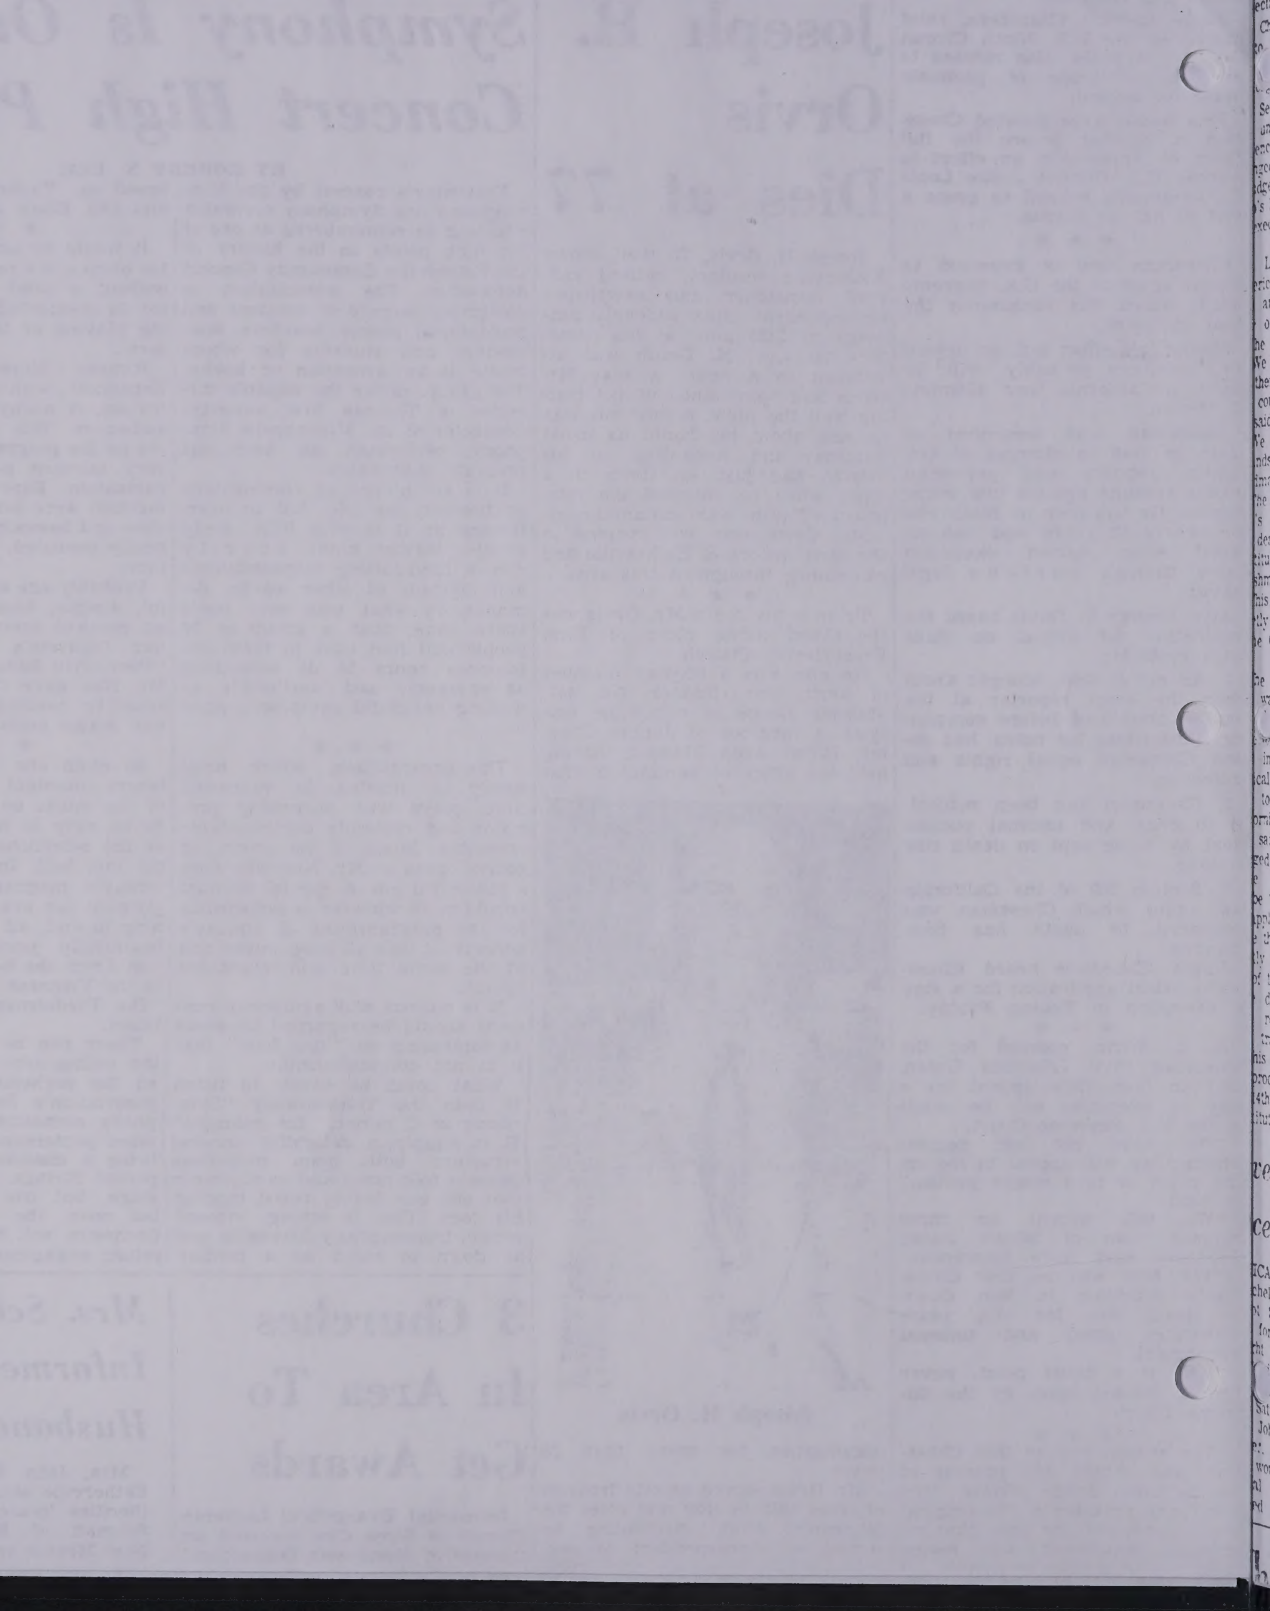

There can be no doubt that the enthusiastic response to the orchestra's association's list of phony orchestras is a tender preference for bringing a chamber phonic strings to the stage, but one hopes that soon the Minneapolis Orchestra will be able to return engagement.

An act of God, brought about by the court reporter at the trial died before completing his notes, had Chessman equal rights and execution.

Chessman had been subjected to cruel and unusual punishment being kept on death row.

Section 209 of the California Penal Code under which Chessman was sentenced to death has been repealed.

Judge Chambers heard Chessman's latest application for a stay of execution in Tucson Friday.

L. Wirin, counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, filed an immediate appeal for a writ of habeas corpus. "We have not yet decided whether we will appeal to the en banc court or to a single justice," he said.

"We will appeal on three grounds, two of which Judge Chambers said were impressive. The first will be that Chessman's detention in San Quentin death row for 11½ years constitutes cruel and unusual punishment.

This is a novel point, never before passed upon by the Supreme Court.

The second will be that Chessman was denied due process of law by Judge Fricke (the judge who presided at the original trial) instructed the jury that no retrial movement was necessary to commit a violation of California's federal Lindbergh law. He said the law has since been repealed by the California Legislature requiring that a person be transported before kidnapping charges.

The third point will be the freely made claim that the record of the original trial is inadequate due to the death of the court reporter before his notes were transcribed.

This deprives Chessman of the process of law guaranteed by the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution."

Loveless Would Accept Bid

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa Gov. Philip Loveless says he would accept the Democratic nomination for vice president if he is the presidential candidate in 1960.

Loveless, on a television show Saturday, said he considered John Kennedy (D-Mass.) a strong possibility. "I would accept the vice presidential nomination if Kennedy asked it of me," Loveless said.

He also was a social member of North Star Chapter, No. 447, Masonic Lodge of which he was tyler, a member of Jephth Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, having held the office of Sentinel in that

He received his education in the Sumner schools and worked in that area until coming to Estherville as a relief cashier and ticket clerk for the railroad. When the Rock Island assumed ownership of the BCR&N railway, he became a train dispatcher and served in that capacity from August, 1902 until Jan. 1, 1931.

Before coming to Estherville, Mr. Orvis had been a telegraph operator for the old BCR&N, doing relief work for four years in about 40 different stations from West Branch, Iowa to Watertown and Sioux Falls, S.D.

He was married Aug. 17, 1904 to Mayme Pliffner of Emmetsburg and following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Orvis established their home here and have lived here since that time.

Hazel Ege was born October 3, 1889 in Albany, Illinois, to William and Viola Ege. She received her education in Morrison, Illinois and her secondary education at Cornell College at Mt. Vernon. She taught school at Strawberry Point.

William and Hazel were married on August 9, 1916 at Livingston, Montana.

A vacancy occurred in the Armstrong School Superintendence in December 1921 and he was elected to the position, beginning work on January 1, 1922. He was superintendent there for thirty four years. He commented once "if he had any degree of success in Armstrong, it was in a large part due to the faithfulness and assistance of his wife, Hazel."

Mr. Ortmeyer attended summer sessions at the University of Iowa and obtained his M. A. Degree during the summer of 1932.

During his career in the education field he served a total of thirty-eight and one half years as superintendent and seven years as a principal, retiring in 1966.

They were active members of the United Methodist Church, William in the Kiwanis Club and the Masonic Lodge. In 1975 he delivered the commencement address "Preparing Our Lives for Successful Living," at Armstrong.

Hazel died on October 25, 1971 and William on August 27, 1975. They are buried in the Armstrong Grove Cemetery.

Joseph Harding Orvis and Mayme Pfiffner were married at her home in Emmetsburg, Iowa on August 17, 1904. Following their honeymoon at the World's Fair in St. Louis they established their home in Estherville in the house where Mrs. Orvis and their daughter Marion were residing at the time of Mrs. Orvis's death on February 7, 1976. Mr. Orvis died February 6, 1960.

Mr. Orvis was a Rock Island Train Dispatcher until his retirement in 1931 due to deafness. He had been an employee of the railroad for thirty-two years.

Following his retirement he was local correspondent for the Des Moines Register, Fort Dodge Messenger and Sioux City Journal. He also served as City Treasurer for a time. During World War II he was Western Union Messenger. He served as Custodian for the Masonic Lodge for a period of time.

Mrs. Orvis was local Government Weather Observer from 1939 through 1950.

They were members of First Presbyterian Church, he for fifty-six years and she for seventy-two years.

Mr. Orvis was an active member of the Masonic Lodge.

In her younger days Mrs. Orvis had been a member of the Eastern Star, White Shrine (she was the first Worthy High Priestess) and D.A.R.

Their daughters are Marion and Eleanor.

Marion taught in Ware, Manning and Estherville after completing her education at Drake University. She served as second and third grade teacher at Lincoln School beginning in 1937. Later she taught a year at Jackson School. Then she was transferred to McKinley School as second grade teacher and Principal. After eleven years there she was transferred to Maniece School where she served as a second grade teacher and Principal for thirteen years.

In 1970 she was transferred to Lincoln for her last five years of teaching. She spent 52 years in the Estherville Schools, fourteen years to get her own education and thirty-eight years as a teacher. She taught forty-four years in Iowa.

Eleanor, now Mrs. A. W. Nelson of Altadena, Ca. had fourteen years of schooling in Estherville. She is a graduate of the University of Southern California. Her husband will retire from Sunkist in 1977 after forty-five years as an employee.

HUSBAND Cella C. PARSONS-1174

NOTES:

Ralph didn't have any info on Cella C. Parsons. He was said to be living at 2223 Poplar Ave, Kansas City, Mo from wife's funeral announcement Jul 1924.

June Beals sent info on 1910 & 1920 census of Jackson Co. MO for Cella & Allie Parsons, Aug 1997. I located them in Iowa census for 1880, 1885 & 1895 and info from city directories of Kansas City, MO.

June was at the Mt Moriah cemetery in Kansas City, located on Holmes street and located most the Parsons stones and took pictures of ones she found. Two being Cella and Allie Parsons with only years on them.

Born 1853 he would have been age 73. If his health was fairly good he could have been working since no Soc Sec at that time and other then family to keep him going.

Cella C. Parsons didn't pass away until 1930 so the above could well be him.

WIFE Alabama "Allie" LOWE-1134

NOTES:

Some info from Ralph Lowe, 1974. She went by Allie. Update info on census from June Beals Aug 1997 of 1910 & 1920. I checked 1880,1885,1895 census and city directories for Kansas City.

BIRTH: Info from Ralph and family info. and census, cemetery stone.

MARRIAGE: Census record listed md 35 yrs in 1910.

DEATH: June Beals received her death certificate and listed the death date as 16 Jul 1924 and was buried at Mt Moriah cem. She also said there were couple bad mistakes on it so she was trying to get it corrected by sending proof of corrections. Will send me copy later. (Nov 1998). She sent me the correct copy and all they did was cross out wrong info and added right.

She had someone look for an obituary but none was located but there was a small funeral announcement located in the Kansas City Journal, Kansas City, MO 19 Jul 1924: "Parsons-- Mrs Allie, died Wednesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs Agnes Hendricks, 2330 Brighton, at the age of 70 years. She is survived by her husband, Cella C.

Parsons, 2223 Poplar; 4 sons, Clyde H., 2242 Chelsea; Vaughn, Madison, Wis.; Reat H. 2537 Elmwood and Herbert L. Northmoor, MO and one daughter, Mrs Albert F. Shurky, 2323 Poplar. Funeral services Friday at 2 p.m. from Eylar Brothers Funeral Home. Burial in Mt. Moriah cemetery."

DEATH: Ralphs info said she died abt 1923 in Kansas City, MO. and buried there, checked some cemetery books at Columbia, MO library Oct 1998 and didn't locate burial info for any of the Parsons but they didn't have info on the Mt Moriah cemetery. June went to the cemetery in spring of 1999 and located the grave stones and took pictures of them. Cemetery located on Holmes Street. Allie and Cela on stones next to each other with only years on them.

Her children were listed in the estate of McClelland Reed 1950 who was husband of Allie's brother's daughter Edna E. Lowe Reed according to info sent by Mrs L.T. Jenner. Clyde H.; Reat H; Herbert L; Vaughn V. Parsons and Pearl E. Shurkey. There were 3 grandchildren listed by the last name of Parsons: Phyllis Ann, Clyde Matthew and Herbert Wing all living at 3418 No. Sheffield, Chicago, IL in 1950 but not child was listed as living in Chicago so who do they belong to? (Allie was Aunt to Edna E. Reed)

First info from Ralph Lowe 1974. June and I both have worked on this family.

BIRTH: Info from Ralph, ca 1876. According to probate estate of Aunt, Helene Wescott dated Nov 1932 listed Agnes Hendricks age as 62, niece, living in Kansas City, MO. This would make her birth 1870. 1936 no address for her so would assume same as 1932 and by 1938 address was 2223 Poplar, Kansas City, MO. 1924 according to mothers funeral announcement she was living at 2330 Brighton, Kansas City, MO.

MARRIAGE: Info from Ralph. No record on marriage CD's.

DEATH: Was not listed in estate of McClelland Reed in 1950 so presume she was deceased before that as her 4 brothers and 1 sister were listed. June had visited the Mt Moriah cemetery in Kansas City, MO and located info on death of Agnes as 1938 but no stone and no info on husband.

CHILDREN: There were 4 Hendricks children listed in the estate also maybe they were their children? James Alfred, Barbara Jean Hendricks DeSpain, Myrna Lee and Patrick Allen Hendricks all living at P.O. Box 265, Holbrook, AZ. Her obit notice listed one son, not named, could be father of these children?

Checked all City directories for several years before and after 1920.

Suggested at 1920 -

Have that info somewhere, but can't put my hands on it right now. Will do later.

Usually they have the wife listed also but never did have Allie listed even in the census years so not sure yet when she died. Was after 1920.

Checked one obituary for Herb Parsons 83, who died 12 Dec 1974 and was in the 13 Dec 1974 "Chillicothe Courier, MO paper. This was not our Herbert Lowe Parsons. This one was born 1891 Bowling Green KY and not right parents or family, he was a barber in Chillicothe, MO.

Only one that fit in Soc Sec Death Index.

OTHER MARRIAGES:

Lelia Glenn JOHNSTON-1182 (MRIN:427)

Married: 17 Jul 1901

Waterloo, Blackhawk Co., IA

NOTES:

First info from Ralph Lowe 1974, then June Beals and I worked on this family.

BIRTH: Ralph listed birth as ca 1878.

MARRIAGE1: Ralph listed marriage to Lelia Johnston 1901 Blackhawk, Co. IA. Copy from prob. Sumner paper 1901: "Mr Clyde Parsons, of this city, and Miss Lelia Glenn Johnston, of Waterloo, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Waterloo, Wednesday evening, Jul 17. Mrs Parsons, until a year ago, resided in Sumner where she was a general favorite. Clyde is a very steady young man and will make a model husband we have no doubt. The young couple left on the eve of their marriage for Palmer Lake, Colorado where they go on account of the health of Mrs Parsons. The Gazette wishes the young couple joy and success in their new relation."

MARRIAGE2: Clyde married 2nd to Cecelia (Celia) (?) maybe after 1910 and before 1920.

DEATH: Was listed as living in Kansas City, MO in the estate of McClelland Reed in 1950. June went to the Mt Moriah cemetery in Kansas City and located the grave stones of Clyde and wives and took pictures of them also.

June sent copy of obituary from "The Kansas City Star & Times" 3 Aug 1961 p8 c3: "Clyde H. Parsons --- Clyde H. Parsons, 84, of 2242 Chelsea, died yesterday at the General hospital. Mr Parsons, a retired carpenter, was born in Sumner, Ia., and lived here 60 years. He was a member of the Van Brunt Boulevard Presbyterian church and the East Gate Masonic lodge. Surviving are his wife, Mrs Celia Parsons of the home; a sister, Mrs Pearle Shurkey, Los Angeles, and a brother, Reate Parsons, 2537 Elmwood. Services at 10 o'clock Friday at the Earp & Sons chapel; burial in Mount Moriah cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 o'clock tonight at the chapel."

June also sent copy of pictures of their grave stones in the Mt Moriah cem. They had complete dates on them.

Listed as living at 2242 Chelsea, Kansas City, MO in his mothers funeral announcement in Jul 1924.

Another article Ralph had which was probably from a Sumner paper but no date. "Clyde Parsons was in town yesterday. He returned with his wife from Florence, Colorado last Monday, and they are now at J.M. Johnston's in Waterloo, where they will remain until there is a change in his wife's condition, which is very unfavorable. She has consumption and the climate of Colorado seemed to have no beneficial effect. The many young friends of the afflicted Mrs Parsons will be sorry to hear that she is no better."

Notes

HUSBAND - James Buchanan LOWE-1135
Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974.

BIRTH: Ralph listed birth date and place.

MARRIAGE: Ralph said married Sumner, IA.

Birth Announcement of daughter, believed to be Ruby Evelyn Lowe, from the Sumner Gazette, Sumner, Iowa, Thurs November 6th, 1890.

"Born to Mr And Mrs J.B. Lowe Friday night, Oct 31, 1890", a girl.

Even though the cemetery stone for this girl has 1894-1898 which is believed to be wrong dates and correct date is 1890-1894 as have obituary from Sumner Gazette dated Thurs, November 8th, 1894 that list her death at age 4 years. Also she is listed in the 1895 census as being 4 years old, which was taken several months after her death, which is something we don't have an answer for. It is believed someone put the stone for her at a later date and that is why it has the wrong dates on it.

DEATH: James and wife and dau moved to CA in 1924 where he died in 1927 and was buried in Union Mound cem, in Sumner, IA. Ralph read cem. stones.

OBITUARY: Info from Sumner Gazette, Sumner, Bremer County, Iowa 22 Dec 1927 pg 1. "Dies at California - J.B. Lowe To Be Buried Here Today --- Former Sumner resident passes away at California home after long illness, will be buried here. Services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mr and Mrs Frank Wescott. James B. Lowe a former Sumner resident and well known in this vicinity passed away last Sunday morning at his home in Pasadena, California after an illness of many months.--- The body which is being returned to Sumner for burial will arrive here this morning and services will be held this afternoon at the home of Mr and Mrs Frank Wescott at 2:30. Mr Lowe as a brother of Mrs Wescott. Interment will be made in the Union Mound Cemetery. --- Mr Lowe moved to California a few years ago to make his home. Some months ago it was discovered that he was afflicted with an incurable malady and his decline has been steady since that time. In spite of the gravity of his condition news of his death bring a sadness to a host of friends here."

Took pictures of grave stones in the Union Mound cemetery of James and Adeline while on visit there 11 Oct 1997. Also of their daughter Edna Eugenia Lowe Reed and Evelyn Lowe

Apr 2010, appears to be a problem with dates on grave stone of their daughter "Ruby Evelyn Lowe" as info on the gravestone is listed as born 31 Oct 1894 and died 4 Nov 1898, at 4 years old.

Faye Frances in Apr 2010 located info on the internet from the Sumner Gazette Newspaper of the birth of one daughter to Mr and Mrs J.B. Lowe on 31 Oct 1890 and then she found a notation that a Ruby Evelyn Lowe died at age 4 on 3 Nov 1894. Even though the day and month are right the years are not. She thinks maybe the stone was put on later and person didn't remember right date, but seem to remember right day and month but years off. Doesn't make sense to me. I think we need a birth cert. or death cert. or some info from the cemetery to be sure why dates in paper differ from dates on the grave stone. Ralph listed her name as Evelyn N. with same dates that are on the grave stone. Since I have pictures of the grave stone that is what is on it. Now be it right or wrong, those are the dates on the stone and all have to go on at this time.

She also found the apparently wrong dates (she says) on another site, find a grave, on the interment but the dates are right with the stone, but now maybe the dates are not actually right.

Doesn't answer why they had a daughter Evelyn listed as age 4 in 1895 when census was taken if she had died in 1894 either, at least not to my satisfaction.

CENSUS RECORDS:

1860 Delaware Co. IA James Buchanan age 5 in home of father and step mother.

1860 Delaware Co. IA James Buchanan age 2 in home of father and step mother.

CENSUS RECORDS:

Query: answer why they had a daughter Evelyn listed as age 4 in 1882 when census was taken if she had died in 1864 either, at least not to my satisfaction.

She also found the apparently wrong dates (she says) on another site, find a grave, on the internet but the dates are right with the stone, but now maybe the dates are not actually right.

CHILD 1 - Edna Eugenia LOWE-1187

BIRTH: Ralph Lowe said she was born in 1880 and her obituary said she was born 10 Oct 1880.

MARRIAGE: She was married in CA the same year she went there in 1924.

DEATH: She died in Pasadena, CA from results of surgery she had. She was brought back to Sumner, IA to be buried next to her parents. She was living at 488 East Claremont Street in Pasadena when she died.

Have pictures of her parents grave stone from Union Mound cemetery, Sumner, Bremer Co. IA and have a pic of her stone but not very readable and also one of her sister. For some reason Edna's stone has a lot of black on it so not real clear but others were readable.

Article from Sumner paper prob. Prof. Eugene I. McCormac and niece Miss Edna Lowe, returned to their school work at Evanston Sunday afternoon, the one in his capacity as teacher, the other as a student. (no date for article)

Edna Lowe attended Lenox College, Hopkinton, IA about 1896-97 at which time she she visited Sidney B. Lowe family living near there, (Ralph's parents). She worked the Chautauqua Circuit for several years. She married rather late in life, when she was over 50. She died before her husband and they had no children. She lived in California at time of her death but was buried at Sumner, IA.

Faye Francis knows some of this family and she said Edna had a friend Elizabeth Long who lived in Maquoketa area and had visited in Edna's home in Sumner. Both attended Lenox College in Hopkinton. Elizabeth taught rural schools and in Cedar Rapids and wrote a childrens poetry book. Her father was George Washington Long and went by Washington. Her mother came from England and was a Mary Banks.

From her obituary was stated she had taught at Upper Iowa University and at Carlton College at Northfield, MN. and continued her lectures in CA when she and her parents moved there in 1924, the same year she was married. She was author of "Danger Signals on the Road of Health" and also completed the manuscript of a new book on "The Speech Arts".

Her obituary was very lengthy so will not copy it all here. Her picture was included with the obituary but didn't copy too well.

Took pictures of grave stone on a visit to the Union Mound cemetery 11 Oct 1997.

1880 Bremer Co. IA, Ralph said she was listed with parents, since born in Oct she shouldn't have been listed. Can check my 1880 index and see if she is listed did check and she is not listed with parents in Sumner, Bremer Co. IA pg 344D, James Lowe 24 IA-AL-MD and Adaline R. wife 20 WI -?- VT.

1885 Bremer Co. Sumner Twp pg 383: Ednay age 4 Bremer Co. IA with parents.

1895 Bremer Co. Sumner Twp Edna age 13 with parents.

1900 Bremer Co. Sumner, pg 108 Railroad St. Edna E. Oct 1880-19 with parents.

Faye Francis and myself were at Iowa City Historical Library 20 May 2009 and worked upstairs and the lady that worked there looked up info on Edna Eugenia when was in the Chautauqua circuit and had two pictures of her which she printed out and have those in my file under Edna. Her husband, McClellan Reed was a well known lecturer and Chautauqua Manager so maybe that is where they met as Edna and her parents moved to CA in 1924 and she married McClellan Reed there in 1924.

DEATH:	She died in Pasadena, CA from results of surgery she had. She was brought back to Sumner, IA to be buried next to her parents. She was living at 488 East Chestnut Street in Pasadena when she died.
	I have pictures of her parents grave stone from Union Mount cemetery, Sumner, Bremer Co. IA and have a pic of her stone but not very readable and also one of her sister. For some reason Edna's stone has a lot of black on it so not real clear but others were readable.
	Info from Ralph Lowe 1974 and received copy of her obituary from Faye Francis in 1996. Which was very lengthy. Believe it was from the Sumner newspaper. Her obituary was from The Gazette, Sumner, IA 3 Oct 1932 page 1 col 6 continued on page 4.
	Article from Sumner paper prob. Prof. Eugene I. McCormick and niece Miss Edna Lowe, returned to their school work at Evanston Sunday afternoon, the one in his capacity as teacher, the other as a student. (no date for article)
	Edna Lowe attended Lenox College, Hopkinton, IA about 1898-97 at which time she also visited Sidney B. Lowe family living near there. (Ralph's parents). She worked the Chautauque Circuit for several years. She married rather late in life when she was over 30. She died before her husband and they had no children. She lived in California at time of her death but was buried at Sumner, IA.
	Faye Francis knows some of this family and she said Edna had a friend Elizabeth Long who lived in Madouketa area and had visited in Edna's home in Sumner. Both attended Lenox College in Hopkinton. Elizabeth taught rural schools and in Cedar Rapids and wrote a childrens poetry book. Her father was George Washington Long and went by Washington. Her mother came from England and was a Quaker.
	From her obituary was stated she had taught at Upper Iowa University and at Carlton College at Northfield, MN. and continued her lectures in CA when she and her parents moved there in 1924, the same year she was married. She was author of "Ginger Spins on the Road of Health" and also completed the manuscript of a new book on "The Sports Art".
	Her obituary was very lengthy so will not copy it all here. Her picture was included with her obituary but didn't copy too well.
	Took picture of grave stone on a visit to the Union Mount cemetery 11 Oct 1997.
	1880 Bremer Co. IA. Ralph said she was listed with parents, since born in Oct she shouldn't have been listed. Can check my 1880 index and see if she is listed old check and she is not listed with parents in Sumner, Bremer Co. IA pg 344D, James Lowe, 24 IA-AL-MD and Abeline R. wife 20 WI -V-TY.
	1882 Bremer Co. Sumner Twp pg 383: Betsy age 4 Bremer Co. IA with parents.
	1892 Bremer Co. Sumner Twp Edna age 13 with parents.
	1900 Bremer Co. Sumner, pg 108 Railroad St. Edna E. Oct 1880-19 with parents.
	Faye Francis and myself were at Iowa City Historical Library 20 May 2009 and worked upstairs and the lady that worked there looked up info on Edna Eugenia when was in the Chautauque circuit and had two pictures of her which she printed out and gave them to my file under Edna. Her husband, McCallen Reed was a well known lecturer and Chautauque Manager so maybe that is where they met as Edna and her parents moved to CA in 1924 and she married McCallen Reed there in 1924.

Info from Ralph Lowe 1974. She died at age 4 yrs. Buried in Union Mound cemetery in Sumner, IA where rest of her family were buried. The dates he gave was the dates that are on the grave stone for Evelyn Lowe B. 31 Oct 1894 and death 4 Nov 1898. Ralph had given her name as Evelyn N. Lowe as well and may have actually been Ruby Evelyn and probably went by Evelyn as that is the name on the gravestone.

1895 Bremer Co. Sumner Twp Evelyn age 4 b. Bremer Co. with parents.

Apr 2010 Faye Frances was looking at the Sumner Gazette Newspaper on the internet and located a notice from 6 Nov 1890 that said Born to Mr and Mrs J.B. Lowe, a girl Friday night, Oct 31, 1890.

Then she found in a Nov 8, 1894 issue an obituary for one Ruby Evelyn Lowe who died Nov 3, 1894. She said the write up was a sad one as the little girl suffered much before she died.

If these dates are correct then the stone dates are not right. Still doesn't answer why Evelyn was listed with parents in 1895 if died in Nov 1894. So I suggested to her we needed to find a birth cert. and or death cert. if available to find out for sure then should also check the cemetery to see if could find any reference to burial and or the stone. She suggested a family member had the stone put there at a much later date and did not remember the years, but did apparently remember the day and the month so that seems rather strange as well.

She also found the 1894-1898 dates on the internet site Find a grave and she wrote to them to tell them they had the wrong date, well they didn't as had what was on the stone so they would have no way to know dates are not right. But could make a note that they might be for other people looking for these people maybe.

I myself cannot get anything to come up on the newspaper site from my end as no matter what I put to look up says nothing is there and could not get to a page in the newspaper, but apparently she did. (17 Apr 2010). Faye sent me copies of both items and believe them to be right.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ADVERTISING EXEMPT FROM SALES TAX

According to an interpretation of the new sales tax law, issued by the state board of assessment and review last week, newspaper subscriptions are classified as a service and therefore are exempt from the sales tax.

Therefore, when subscribers to the Gazette pay their subscriptions no tax will apply.

The same ruling has been made in regard to newspaper advertising, which is classified as a service and not a commodity. Therefore, Gazette advertisers will not be called upon to pay a tax on their advertising.

On the other hand, commercial printing has been classified as a commodity, and the tax of two cents on every dollar will be added on each individual order.

NOT GUILTY PLEA MADE BY KACERE

Cedar Rapids Motorist, Indicted for Manslaughter Appears in Court

An echo from the automobile crash which claimed the lives of six people last September at the intersection of Nos. 59 and 10 was heard in district court Monday when Charles Kacere, driver of one of the cars, plead not guilty to the charge of manslaughter. He was indicted by the grand jury in January.

According to present indications he will enter a petition for a change of venue.

Appearing before Judge M. H. Kepler in district court Wednesday of last week, Carl Faist of this place, indicted by the grand jury at the March term for malicious destruction of property, entered a plea of not guilty. By agreement of counsel and prosecuting attorney, his trial will be held at the September term of court.

He is charged with having torn out a grain bin, removed linoleum and a water pressure system before vacating the John Rimrodt farm on which he had been a tenant.

The Schlagenhauser will case was taken up in court Tuesday, and will occupy the attention of the court several days. Because two different wills have been filed for probate, the court is attempting to establish which takes precedence. Michael Meyer of Tanneburg, Germany, who is contesting the case, has come to testify. The first action was to establish whether Meyer, alleged son, is eligible to contest the case. Because he is unable to speak English, Prof. August Engelbrecht of Waverly is acting as interpreter.

Tietje had a weak heart, with neuralgic symptoms. The remains were taken home, southwest of town, and the funeral was held Tuesday morning, 11 o'clock at the house, and then to the Lutheran church in the neighborhood, Rev. Haendschke officiating. Burial made in the parochial cemetery.

The second sudden death was that of Mrs. W. H. McCormac northeast of town. Mrs. McCormac lived in a house near that of her son Frank. She had a cow which she always milked herself, and it was while milking Tuesday evening and while alone that death came to her. Frank had been away to the Krause sale, and upon coming home went to look to the windmill and pump, and then into barn. As he entered he saw a shawl, and just had the words "Why, mother you got ahead of me again," when the words were stopped on his tongue by seeing her lying dead before him. She had only half milked the cow, and as the milk was in the pail all right, she probably felt sick and had arisen and set the milk aside. She had only been dead a few minutes and from failure of the heart. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon or Sunday at the house.

The two families that have thus had loved ones snatched from them without warning have the sympathy of all in the loss they have sustained and in the especially distressing manner in which bereavement came to them.

The first basket ball team Sumner high school met the Waverly team at the county seat last Saturday night and was not whitewashed. It can be said of them that they got shut out for they made 8 scores. This we have been good and plenty if the adversaries hadn't got 69. However the defeat was made less bitter than it might have been by the fine treatment accorded the visitors by the Waverly team, which is the best school team. Sumner lined up as follows: Ceryl Farrand center, Ed Dunkelberg, Leslie Fay and Fred Schroeder forwards, Robert Pad Florence Bell and Ray Farnum guards Earl Schuckneck umpire.

HUSBAND - McClellan REED-1189
Some info from Ralph Lowe 1974

McClellan was married 3 times. None of the wives known except Edna E. Lowe. No mention of any children from previous marriages so no record of that.

Ralph said he died in the fall of 1950 and Ralph had a copy of all the people who benefited from his estate that was related to Edna, which was furnished to court by Mrs L. T. Jenner, Parkersburg, IL.

Faye had written to Charles Herbert Crookston in San Francisco, CA to check on the death index of CA to see if date could be located and they wrote her back and sent the date that he died, 13 May 1944. So it would appear that it took that long to get all the heirs listed and contacted until 1950 when the estate was settled. The state file number was #35678.

McClellan had a varied background and had been a Prof. at University of CA at Berkeley and he and Edna got off the ground the National Crime Prevention Council and he was also a lecturer and chatauqua manager and president of the Sunday Morning Breakfast Club.

WIFE - Edna Eugenia LOWE-1187

BIRTH: Ralph Lowe said she was born in 1880 and her obituary said she was born 10 Oct 1880.

MARRIAGE: She was married in CA the same year she went there in 1924.

DEATH: She died in Pasadena, CA from results of surgery she had. She was brought back to Sumner, IA to be buried next to her parents. She was living at 488 East Claremont Street in Pasadena when she died.

Have pictures of her parents grave stone from Union Mound cemetery, Sumner, Bremer Co. IA and have a pic of her stone but not very readable and also one of her sister. For some reason Edna's stone has a lot of black on it so not real clear but others were readable.

Article from Sumner paper prob. Prof. Eugene I. McCormac and niece Miss Edna Lowe, returned to their school work at Evanston Sunday afternoon, the one in his capacity as teacher, the other as a student. (no date for article)

Edna Lowe attended Lenox College, Hopkinton, IA about 1896-97 at which time she she visited Sidney B. Lowe family living near there, (Ralph's parents). She worked the Chautauqua Circuit for several years. She married rather late in life, when she was over 50. She died before her husband and they had no children. She lived in California at time of her death but was buried at Sumner, IA.

Faye Francis knows some of this family and she said Edna had a friend Elizabeth Long who lived in Maquoketa area and had visited in Edna's home in Sumner. Both attended Lenox College in Hopkinton. Elizabeth taught rural schools and in Cedar Rapids and wrote a childrens poetry book. Her father was George Washington Long and went by Washington. Her mother came from England and was a Mary Banks.

From her obituary was stated she had taught at Upper Iowa University and at Carlton College at Northfield, MN. and continued her lectures in CA when she and her parents moved there in 1924, the same year she was married. She was author of "Danger Signals on the Road of Health" and also completed the manuscript of a new book on "The Speech Arts".

Newspaper accounts of her illness and death appearing in the Pasadena Star News with the dates on which they appeared are as follows: (Sept. 21, 1935)

An unusually wide circle of friends in Pasadena and vicinity today mourn the passing late yesterday of Mrs McClellan Reed, 488 East Claremont street. Gifted as a public speaker and possessed of many personal charm, Mrs Reed created a large place for herself in the life of this community in the 11 years of her residence here and her death, though not entirely unexpected came as a great shock to many friends.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the C.F. Lamb Co. Funeral home on East Orange Grove avenue, conducted by Dr. Merle N. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church. The body will be taken to Sumner, Ia, for burial in the family plot where lie the bodies of her father and mother, Mr and Mrs James R. Lowe, both of whom died here.

Known in many states as Edna Eugenia Lowe, her name when she appeared on the chatauqua and lyceam stage, Mrs Reed was born at Sumner, IA, ¹⁸⁹⁰ October 20, 1890. She graduated from Northwestern University and for 12 years was engaged in the teaching profession specializing in the speech arts. Her teaching was at Upper Iowa university and at Carlton college, Northfield, Minn. With her parents, she moved to Pasadena in 1924 and the same year became the wife of McClellan Reed, well known lecturer and chatauqua manager.

Mrs Reed was known not only on the lecture platform but also as an author, one of her books being on the subject "Danger Signals on the Road of Health". Recently she completed the manuscript of a new book on "The Speech Arts". For several years she was engaged in teaching expression here, maintaining a home studio and her influence as a teacher was widespread.

A member of a number of clubs here, Mrs Reed found time to share in the cultural life of the community, giving freely of her time and talents to various church and social groups. She was active in the P.E.O. Sisterhood, the New Century Sorosis, the First Congregational church and its ^{auxiliary} the Sunday Morning Breakfast club of which her husband is president, and aided Mr Reed materially in forming the National Crime Preventional council in which she ^{took} ^{great} interest. She was deeply interested in humanity in all its forms and at the time her fatal illness overcome her she was making plans to carry out a life-time resolve to be of greater service to others.

Mrs Reed's father passed away here in 1927 and her mother in April 1934. Among a number of relatives surviving is an uncle, Dr Eugene Irving McCormac, member of the faculty of the University of California at Berkeley. Dr McCormac regarded her as his "favorite niece" and gave up his school work when she became ill, remaining with Mr Reed at her bedside until death came yesterday, Sep 23, 1935.

Members of organizations, church workers, friends and neighbors, whose presence in large numbers was eloquent testimony to her qualities, attended at the C.F. Lamb Funeral home this morning funeral services of Mrs Edna E. Reed, wife of McClellan Reed.

In his eulogistic remarks Rev. Merle N. Smith, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, referred to Mrs Reed's beautiful character, her charitable disposition remembered by countless people she has helped, her love for her home and the beautiful home life she helped to create.

A lover of flowers and poetry he said Mrs Reed while in hospital following the operation from which she failed to recover, compiled a list of her favorite poems that she was never finished. It was during her last days Dr Smith related, that she told her husband her illness had been a wonderful experience and had made the whole world seem different, making her more resolved than ever to devote her remaining days to the service of humanity. This he said was characteristic of the brave, unselfish spirit of this woman who had endeared herself to many persons in all walks of life.

"A beautiful life," said the pastor, "is the most beautiful thing in the world. Mrs Reed loved the innocent, trusting face of a child, the serene beauty of beneficent old age. Hers was a spiritual life and she often said that whenever anything disturbed her she invariably managed to solve her problems in meditation and prayer."

Organ and harp selections that were favorites with Mrs Reed were played by Nancy C. Clements, harpist, and Mrs Mildred Wickland, organist. Among them were "Schonn Erinnerung" and "Londonderry Air." The service closed with Schubert's "Ava Maria" played by Mrs Edna Dundon, violinist, with harp obligate by Mrs Clements and as the friends filed by the casket, which was banked by magnivicent floral pieces, "Going Home" from Dvorak's "New World Symphony" was played by the organist.

The blanket covering the coffin was fashioned of large yellow chrysanthemums and Talisman roses, white dahlias and roses predominated among the flowers.

Honorary pallbearers were Louis Koch, S.J. Kent, F.G. Martin, C.E. Pippitt, L.G. Dunlop, Dr. F.K. Ledyard, Walter Stern, S.J. Beer, Walter Johnson, C. F. Shoop, William T. Nolting, Ernest F. Nolting, F.B. Cruickshank and Dr. L. Bendixson.

Mr Reed leaves tonight with his wife's body, which will be buried in Sumner, Iowa, where she was born. He will be met there by his brother, L.J. Reed and his nephew, Rev. Frank A. Robertson, who with their wives are motoring from Charleston, W. VA.

An unusually wide circle of friends in Pasadena and vicinity today mourn the passing late yesterday of Mrs. McClellan Reed, 488 East Claremont street. Gifted as a public speaker and possessed of many social accomplishments and much personal charm, Mrs. Reed created a large place for herself in the life of this community in the 11 years of her residence here and her death, though not entirely unexpected, came as a great shock to many friends.

MRS. REED LAID TO REST (Concluded from Page 1)

In this stage, Mrs. Reed was born at Sumner, Ia., October 20, 1880. She graduated from Northwestern university and for 12 years was engaged in the teaching profession, specializing in the speech arts. Her teaching was at Upper Iowa university and at Carlton college, Northfield, Minn. With her parents, she moved to Pasadena in 1924 and the same year became the wife of McClellan Reed, well known lecturer and chautauqua manager.

Mrs. Reed was known not only on the lecture platform but also as an author, one of her books being on the subject "Danger Signals on the Road to Health." Recently she completed the manuscript of a new book on "The Speech Arts." For several years she was engaged in teaching expression, here, maintaining a home studio and her influence as a teacher was widespread.

A member of a number of clubs here, Mrs. Reed found time to share in the cultural life of the community, giving freely of her time and talents to various church and social groups. She was active in the P. E. O. Sisterhood, the New Century Sorosis, the First Congregational church and its auxiliaries, the Sunday Morning Breakfast club of which her husband is president, and aided Mr. Reed materially in forming the National Crime Preventional council in which she evinced great interest. She was 1934. Among a number of relatives surviving is an uncle, Dr. Eugene Irving McCormac, member of the faculty of the University of California at Berkeley. Dr. McCormac regarded her as his "favorite niece" and gave up his school work when she became ill, remaining with Mr. Reed at her bedside until death came yesterday.

(Sept. 23, 1935)
Members of organizations, church workers, friends and neighbors, whose presence in large number was eloquent testimony to her qualities, attended at the C. F. Lamb Funeral home this morning funeral services of Mrs. Edna E. Reed, wife of McClellan Reed.

In his eulogistic remarks Rev. Merle N. Smith, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, referred to Mrs. Reed's beautiful character, her charitable disposition remembered by countless people she has helped, her love for her home and the beautiful home life she helped to create.

A lover of flowers and poetry, he said, Mrs. Reed while in hospital following the operation from which she failed to recover, compiled a list of her favorite poems that was never finished. It was during her last days, Dr. Smith related, that she told her husband her illness had been a wonderful experience and had made the whole world seem different, making her more resolved than ever to devote her remaining days to the service of humanity. This he said was characteristic of the brave, unselfish spirit of this woman who had endeared herself to many persons in all walks of life.

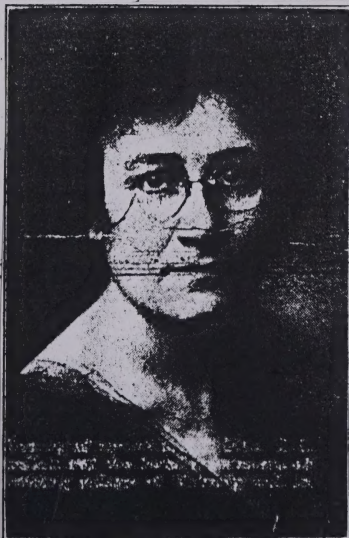

"A beautiful life," said the pastor, "is the most beautiful thing in the world. Mrs. Reed loved the innocent, trusting face of a child, the serene beauty of beneficent old age. Hers was a spiritual life and she often said that whenever anything disturbed her she invariably managed to solve her problems in meditation and prayer."

Organ and harp selections that were favorites with Mrs. Reed were played by Nancy C. Clements, harpist, and Mrs. Mildred Wickland, organist. Among them were "Schonn Erinnerung" and "Londonderry Air." The service closed with Schubert's "Ave Maria" played by Mrs. Edna Dundon, violinist, with harp obligato by Mrs. Clements; and as the friends filed by the casket, which was banked by magnificent floral pieces, "Going Home" from Dvorak's "New World Symphony" was played by the organist.

The blanket covering the coffin was fashioned of large yellow chrysanthemums and Talisman roses, while dahlias and roses predominated among the flowers.

Honorary pallbearers were Louis Koch, S. J. Kent, F. G. Martin, C. E. Pippitt, I. G. Dunlop, Dr. F. K. Ledyard, Walter Stern, S. J. Beer, Walter Johnson, C. F. Shoop, William T. Nolting, Ernest F. Nolting, F. B. Cruickshank and Dr. L. Bendixson.

Mr. Reed leaves tonight with his wife's body, which will be buried in Sumner, Iowa, where she was born. He will be met there by his brother, deeply interested in humanity in all its forms and at the time her fatal illness overcame her she was making plans to carry out a life-time resolve

EDNA EUGENIA LOWE
READER — HEALTH LECTURER

INTRODUCTORY

OR several years there has been a decided trend in the Chautauqua movement to secure attractions that stood for vital principles and which would leave the entire community better after their having been upon the local program. While there is still a call for the regulation Lyceum attractions yet the demand has become more and more insistent for features along educational lines and upon topics which would help to solve the problems of every day health. Miss Edna Lowe presents a Chautauqua feature which is pre-eminent in its helpful quality. Her lecture recitals for morning work are bound to prove helpful and popular wherever she may appear. These morning lectures are grouped under the general title of "Danger Signals on the Road to Health." They are grouped under various topics and contain a course of instruction in hygiene, physical culture and practical nursing which is bound to be of great value to home audiences everywhere. Her morning talks are illustrated by practical demonstrations in physical culture, and she can take charge of some classes of young people along these lines. In order that our readers may have a better understanding of the scope of Miss Lowe's work for her morning lectures we give below the subjects which she will discuss during the Chautauqua engagement.

The Chautauque and Lycene Coaching School

CHICAGO

EDNA EUGENIA LOWE

The Chautauque and Lycene Coaching School, Chicago, Illinois, is a school of the highest order, and is the only school of the kind in the world.

The Word of the School

THE Chautauqua and Lyceum Coaching School takes a great deal of pride in announcing Miss Lowe as a member of its faculty. Few persons are better fitted to take the place that Miss Lowe is called to occupy. She has the support and endorsement of a very enthusiastic public for her almost unprecedented success as a reader and entertainer; also as authority on physical well-being, enjoying the distinction of author and lecturer on that subject. Miss Lowe, however, is primarily a teacher of the fine art of speech and expression.

The Department of Speech Arts finds in this woman the type of person in herself, and the educator in Art who will attract, command and hold the attention of all applicants for instruction.

It takes personality to teach. Miss Lowe has that. A really great instructor in Art should be a successful producer of Art. Miss Lowe is all that. Technical training is always necessary. Miss Lowe possesses that. She is welcomed into the faculty because all these requirements are hers to a marked degree.

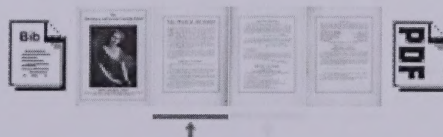

Miss Lowe—The Teacher

Miss Lowe has a college foundation for her work, being a university product.

In turn Upper Iowa University, Northwestern University have been proud to have her as student. Northwestern University School of Oratory graduated her. Later she took a post-graduate course in the same school.

Teaching as a profession followed and position after position opened to her, she proved herself successful and it is demonstrated in the numerous calls that have come to her from time to time.

As a teacher, therefore, she comes to the Chautauqua and Lyceum Coaching School not only with technical training, but with experience as a teacher. Her greatest success was shown in her work at Carlton College, where for five years she was Professor of Oratory.

The Word & the School

The school is a place where the word is used in a special way. It is a place where the word is used to teach and to learn. The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

What is the school?

The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

The school is a place where the word is used to create a community. The school is a place where the word is used to build a future.

Miss Lowe--Entertainer

A few words of appreciation are sufficient to establish her:

Miss Edna Eugenia Lowe may well be classed among the all too few thoroughly commendable readers. She possesses adequate voice and technic, and to this adds devotion, insight, and the cherishing of an ideal. The audience that listens to her reading has been not only entertained, but stimulated to an appreciation of a little finer type of living. Without a suggestion of the pulpit, she is an effective and most delightful social preacher.

P. W. DYKEMA,

Professor of Music, The University of Wisconsin.

Miss Lowe is first of all an artist in her line, presenting in her recitals work that which is forceful, varied, original and delightfully human. She has a charming personality, keen appreciation of the relation of her art to life, thorough training and boundless enthusiasm. Her success is assured.

MARY ALICE EMERSON,

Professor of English, University of Boston.

Miss Edna Eugenia Lowe,
New Hampton, Iowa.

My Dear Miss Lowe:

Permit me to congratulate you upon your decision to devote your entire time to lyceum work. The art of reading now occupies an important place in our lyceum and chautauqua work. Your interpretation is beautiful, interesting and effective. The successful reader today must bring a message that will reach the human heart and be remembered. I wish you all possible success.

Very sincerely yours,

ADOLPH O. EBERHART,

Governor of Minnesota.

HEALTH LECTURES ATTENDED BY MANY (Daily Chautauqua, Valley City, N. Dak.)

Assembly tent was too small to accommodate those who desired to hear the health lecture by Miss Eugenia Lowe yesterday. Many were unable to find seats and larger quarters will hereafter be provided. The lectures will be held in the main auditorium whenever possible as Miss Lowe's work is proving one of the most interesting attractions of Chautauqua.

Yesterday Miss Lowe continued her talks upon the function of the bodily organs in throwing off poisons taken into the body or manufactured there through the process of food digestion. She pointed out the symptoms which indicate that one or more of these organs is failing to accomplish its work and described the proper treatment of the body to prevent over taxing of any organs.

Your success in public can be greatly enhanced by taking a course in any line of the Speech Arts under Miss Lowe.

Students are received at any time in all departments of the school. Write Miss Lowe or the school direct for further information.

 Subject: Mystery Solved

Hi Gladys,

Think we have the mystery solved for the Oelw available on Friday and none on Sat. so that is y homecoming weekend for the school or someth and came by and followed me in my car to Oel have left us in early, if not, we kept our stuff in Sumner and met you. Bob would have driven how to get to them. I had been to all of them t and ate out there and compared our notes whil as I recall and enjoyed ourselves.

AGE AND TREACHERY WILL OVERCOME YOUTH AND SKILL.

Don't know if you are interested in this obit. for Andrew Jackson Lowe's Granddaughter. She is the one I felt might have had a love affair with Sidney & it resulted in Billy Lowe's mother. Billy insisted our Verna Lowe was at his mother's funeral in Calif. in 1952. I noticed Mary Erma Lowe was Edna's secret companion. Verna & Erma sound alike.

Just a theory-but maybe!

P-730 © 1986 3M

All set to drive up to Dbq. but was sure the sun would come out for the aft. - so far, no sign of it. Jumped in the tub and got dressed and ready to go. Will get the rest of Mike's bd gift and stop at Hy-Vee. Will get a swivel deal for my yard decoration I found at the truck stop. Just a nice quiet trip with no rushing around. Need to pick up a phone card for the cell phone and they now carry them at Target so will be handy. Won't go to the mall as takes too much time to hit them all.

No word on our card playing. Let the others worry about it. There just is no reason for her not to take her turn unless she is still sick. She really did have something bad and might still be fighting it off. I think she is about 86 so we don't snap back real fast at that age.

There were gobs of Samuel Paxtons in VA - actually in Rockbridge. I did find a gen. in one of the books at that library we went to (a college ?). He traced ours down and I would think it is correct. You should have that somewhere in the stuff we brought back. I think one of the Paxtons married a Huston, too.

Have been trying to find information on an Elizabeth Long who lived in the Maquoketa area. She was a friend of Edna Eugenia Lowe and visited there home in Sumner. They both attended Lenox College in Hopkinton. Elizabeth taught rural schools and in Cedar Rapids and wrote a children's poetry book. Have wondered if she might have been Sidney's love. Can't get much on her. Her father was George Washington Long and went by Washington. Her mother came from England and was a Mary Banks. How the Lowe got involved, is beyond me.

Got to go. Sure looks crappy out. Hope we don't get any wind or thunder and lightening. Just my luck to have that happen.

Later.

Mr. Reed accompanied his brother and Rev. Robertson and their wives from here Friday to their home in West Virginia. Miss Wilson who also accompanied the body of Mrs. Reed here for the funeral, went from here to Minneapolis to visit friends and to transact business in connection with Mr. Reed's interest in crime prevention work. From there she is going to Chicago and finally on to Angola, Ind., to visit home folks. She expects to return to Pasadena the last part of October.

Newspaper accounts of her illness and death appearing in the Pasadena Star-News with the dates on which they appeared, are as follows:

(Sept. 21, 1935)

An unusually wide circle of friends in Pasadena and vicinity today mourn the passing late yesterday of Mrs. McClellan Reed, 488 East Claremont street. Gifted as a public speaker and possessed of many social accomplishments and much personal charm, Mrs. Reed created a large place for herself in the life of this community in the 11 years of her residence here and her death, though not entirely unexpected, came as a great shock to many friends.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10 a. m. at the C. F. Lamb Co. Funeral home on East Orange Grove avenue, conducted by Dr. Merle N. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church. The body will be taken to Sumner, Ia., for burial in the family plot where lie the bodies of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Lowe, both of whom died here.

stage, Mrs. Reed was born at Sumner, Ia., October 20, 1880. She graduated from Northwestern university and for 12 years was engaged in the teaching profession, specializing in the speech arts. Her teaching was at Upper Iowa university and at Carleton college, Northfield, Minn. With her parents, she moved to Pasadena in 1924 and the same year became the wife of McClellan Reed, well known lecturer and chautauqua manager.

Mrs. Reed was known not only on the lecture platform but also as an author, one of her books being on the subject "Danger Signals on the Road to Health." Recently she completed the manuscript of a new book on "The Speech Arts." For several years she was engaged in teaching expression here, maintaining a home studio and her influence as a teacher was widespread.

A member of a number of clubs here, Mrs. Reed found time to share in the cultural life of the community, giving freely of her time and talents to various church and social groups. She was active in the P. E. O. Sisterhood, the New Century Sorosis, the First Congregational church and its auxiliaries, the Sunday Morning Breakfast club of which her husband is president, and aided Mr. Reed materially in forming the National Crime Preventional council in which she evinced great interest. She was deeply interested in humanity in all its forms and at the time her fatal illness overcame her she was making plans to carry out a life-time resolve to be of greater service to others.

Mrs. Reed's father passed away here in 1927 and her mother in April, 1934. Among a number of relatives surviving is an uncle, Dr. Eugene Irving McCormac, member of the faculty of the University of California at Berkeley. Dr. McCormac regarded her as his "favorite niece" and gave up his school work when she became ill, remaining with Mr. Reed at her bedside until death came yesterday.

(Sept. 23, 1935)

Members of organizations, church workers, friends and neighbors, whose presence in large number was eloquent testimony to her qualities, attended at the C. F. Lamb Funeral home this morning funeral services of Mrs. Edna E. Reed, wife of McClellan Reed.

In his eulogistic remarks Rev. Merle N. Smith, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, referred to Mrs. Reed's beautiful character, her charitable disposition remembered by countless people she has helped, her love for her home and the beautiful home life she helped to create.

A lover of flowers and poetry, he said, Mrs. Reed while in hospital following the operation from which she failed to recover, compiled a list of her favorite poems that was never finished. It was during her last days, Dr. Smith related, that she told her husband her illness had been a wonderful experience and had made the whole world seem different, making her more resolved than ever to devote her remaining days to the service of humanity. This he said was characteristic of the brave, unselfish spirit of this woman who had endeared herself to many persons in all walks of life.

"A beautiful life," said the pastor, "is the most beautiful thing in the world. Mrs. Reed loved the innocent, trusting face of a child, the serene beauty of beneficent old age. Hers was a spiritual life and she often said that whenever anything disturbed her she invariably managed to solve her problems in meditation and prayer."

Organ and harp selections that were favorites with Mrs. Reed were played by Nancy C. Clements, harpist, and Mrs. Mildred Wickland, organist. Among them were "Schonn Erinnerung" and "Londonderry Air." The service closed with Schubert's "Ave Maria" played by Mrs. Edna Dundon, violinist, with harp obligato by Mrs. Clements; and as the friends filed by the casket, which was banked by magnificent floral pieces, "Going Home" from Dvorak's "New World Symphony" was played by the organist.

The blanket covering the coffin was fashioned of large yellow chrysanthemums and Talisman roses; while dahlias and roses predominated among the flowers.

Honorary pallbearers were Louis Koch, S. J. Kent, F. G. Martin, C. E. Pippitt, I. G. Dunlop, Dr. F. K. Ledyard, Walter Stern, S. J. Beer, Walter Johnson, C. F. Shoop, William T. Nolting, Ernest F. Nolting, F. B. Cruickshank and Dr. L. Bendixson.

Mr. Reed leaves tonight with his wife's body, which will be buried in Sumner, Iowa, where she was born. He will be met there by his brother, L. J. Reed, and his nephew, Rev. Frank A. Robertson, who with their wives are motoring from Charleston, W. Va.
